

RACIEME

60 YEARS AGO

Oct. 24, 1914—"Despite the warnings issued by Dean Engberg to the Sophomores the other day regarding hazing, the freshmen made some slight reparation for the attempt of the Sophomores to grab Freshmen and paint '17' upon their faces with iodine, by kidnaping Bob Harney, president of the sophomore class.

"The getaway was made in an automobile. Harney was seized while being shaved in a downtown barber shop. He was taken to a safe place in the country, given plenty to eat, invited to retire at 10 and entertained Saturday morning while his classmates were desperately trying to uphold the honor of their class against the freshmen in the Olympics. He was brought back to Lincoln in time to see the football game Saturday afternoon.

UNL vets support benefits bill

The UNL Student Veterans Organization is calling for all concerned voters in Nebraska to contact their elected representatives to encourage passage of the "Vietnam Veteran Readjustment Act of 1974," according to a Student Veteran's Organization press release issued Tuesday.

The bill, which would provide increased educational benefits for veterans, has been passed unanimously by both the House and Senate but is under the threat of a veto by President Gerald Ford.

According to the release, "The passage of this bill is vitally important to the 45,000 plus Vietnam veterans in Nebraska for the continuation of their education."

Timothy L. Craig, president of the National Association of Concerned Veterans, (NACV) said in a letter to NACV members, "We must persuade President Ford to sign this bill - or the fight (for passage of the bill) starts all over again."

Craig also claimed in a postscript to the letter that "there is a rumor that a mass demonstration is being planned in (Washington) D.C. if the President vetoes the bill."

He urged members to "keep that 'rumor' in mind."
