Halloween haunted by spirits and boos

Gangsters, goblins, ghouls and gorillas camouflaging UNL students can celebrate Halloween, Thursday, in any one of many activities open to them in Lincoln.

Among the horrifying avenues of entertainment, the haunted house seems to be the most popular this year. At least five of them were open, one of which, the Theta Xi Haunted House, has already closed.

The KLMS radio "Scream in the Dark" house, cosponsored with Campus Life, is located at 3136 O St. and will be open nightly, except for Sundays, until Nov. 2. Admission is $1.50.

The "House of Terror" at 19th and O Streets is sponsored by KFOR radio and is open Monday through Thursday, 7 to 10 p.m., Friday and Saturday, 7 to 12 p.m., and on Sundays from 6 to 10:30 p.m. Admission is $1.00.

East Campus haunts

Residents of the East Campus Burr-Fedde residence halls may go to the Burr West Haunted House, to be held in "the Dirt Room" Oct. 31 following the horror movie, "Invaders from Mars" to be shown in the East Union beginning at 8 p.m.

The Lincoln Community Playhouse is sponsoring a Haunted House at 27th and O streets, open nightly from 7:30 to 9 p.m. until Oct. 30.

Several Lincoln night spots are sponsoring special Halloween parties. Cricket, in cooperation with Little Bohemia West, is sponsoring their third annual Halloween spectacular.

Terry Lick, lead guitarist for Cricket, said over $100 in prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. Prizes for games and other activities will also be awarded. Lick said everyone must be wearing a costume to participate.

Costume Party

Caseys' Other Place will also award prizes for the best costumes at its second annual "masked brawl" and the Royal Grove is sponsoring a costume party.

KLIN, 1400 on the AM radio dial, will replay "The War of the Worlds" by Orson Wells at 9 p.m. Thursday. It was first broadcast on Halloween in 1938.

Many of UNL sororities, fraternities, and residence halls have scheduled special events for Halloween. Dean Steiner, president of Abel Hall, said that although the hall as a whole isn't having a party, many of the individual floors are celebrating Halloween in conjunction with their All University Fund fast Wednesday night.

Jim Minarick of Delta Tau Delta said they and their Little Sister organization, the Delts, will take children trick or treating from the Lancaster Office of Mental Retardation.

UNICEF

Residents from three floors of Selleck Quadrangle are dressing in costume for dinner and having a party for underprivileged children. Part of Selleck Quadrangle, International House, and tenth floor Cather will go from door to door to specific locations in Lincoln to collect for UNICEF.

After this, movies will be shown at Selleck for these students, and free refreshments will be served. The movies to be shown are "I Was a Teenage Werewolf," "The Premature Burial," and "Black Sabbath," starring Boris Karloff.

Nebraska Union Concerts will sponsor a post-Halloween frolic featuring a comedy film and live music Friday in the Union Ballroom. "Jailhouse Rock" will be shown at 8 p.m. and will be followed by the music of the Megatonnes. Tickets will be 75 cents at the door.

Need A Band?

Four local musicians have formed a new band, the Lincoln Island Band. Mike Johnson, bass; Vern Meints, guitar; Larry Talbot, piano; Pat Trojan, drums.
