RACETIME

60 YEARS AGO

Oct. 31, 1914 — "The mid-semester examinations will be held in the near future and they are destined to strike fear into the hearts of the verdant Frosh and the great and wise Sophomore. The exams will be held during the eighth week of the term, that is from November 9 to 14.

"Already the students are beginning to inquire into their standing as aspirants to the great and dignified P.B.K., which may be a new "frat" for all the Frosh knows. The Soph however, tells his younger brother who is a Frosh here that it is a frat and that he was "rushed" by them when he was a Frosh. The aspirants to this honorable society are now beginning to make the start on the grand "cram" and to pray feverently that they will be successful in their efforts."
