

daily nebraskan sports

Huskers to tame Wildcats

Winning streak to continue

This week's predictions:

Nebraska 48, Kansas State 0

Nebraska is riding a four-game winning streak while the Wildcats are burdened with injuries to key players (key to them, but worthless on any other Big 8 team.) The Nebraska defense will try to shake off a fourth quarter jinx that has made games seem closer than they were.

Oklahoma 52, Kansas 7

Joe Washington, Jim Littrell and Elvis Peacock are too much to stop for any team, especially one that has lost four in a row.

Oklahoma State 24, Colorado 14

Though Oklahoma State is headed for the Fiesta Bowl, this regionally televised game likely will have a lower Nielson rating than Wild Kingdom.

Kentucky 27, Florida 20

If Florida keeps losing, this year's Sugar Bowl is going to have about as much glamour as a sumo wrestling match.

Ohio St. 42, Iowa 10

The Buckeyes will have vengeance in mind after last week's disastrous loss. Archie Griffin will have a good chance to improve his rushing statistics in his quest for the Heisman trophy.

Pittsburg 21, Notre Dame 16

The game is at South Bend but the Panthers have the talent to hand the Irish their second loss. If Tony Dorsett gets some blocking, it could be worse.

As Woody Hayes was walking off the field following Ohio State's loss to Michigan State, a young MSU fan trotted up to him to say a few words.

Though he probably said something as mild as: "You lose, Woody" or "There goes number one," Woody chose not to ignore him.

Instead, he slugged the unfortunate student in the mouth and kept walking.

On another occasion in his stormy career, Hayes ripped some sideline markers to pieces in protest of an officials decision.

One usually doesn't think of a major college head coach as being one of the violent type, but if Woody's temper tantrums continue he might end up at the summit of the Top Ten yet.

Except it will be on the FBI's Ten Most Wanted list and not the AP college football poll.

The UNL wrestlers will compete in their first meet of the season at the Fargo Open this weekend.

One of the grapplers especially eager for the season to begin is 6 ft. 4 in., 315 lb. Bruce Conger.

steve taylor taylored sports

"It gets sort of boring during practice when you have nothing to look forward to," Conger said. "This week, practice went fast."

He said he thinks the Huskers have a fair chance to win the Big 8 this season because they have "the best material they've had here in quite a few years."

Conger, who is from Las Vegas, was originally recruited for football (he had 25 scholarship offers) but said he switched to wrestling due to his affection for the sport.

The amiable sophomore says he has few regrets about winding up in Lincoln.

"I really like the campus, the people and the way it is set up here. The only thing I don't like is that there are three guys to every girl."

Osborne uneasy at Ames

"Very, very uneasy" was the response Nebraska head coach Tom Osborne said he had to pregame actions of Iowa State fans at Ames last Saturday.

Osborne told the Extra Point Club members Monday that ISU fan character left something to be desired. Their fans threw apples and oranges, not to mention smoke bombs, beer cans and numerous other items at Nebraska players and fans, he said.

"I was worried about Iowa State," admitted Osborne. The field was bad, the rain was a hindrance and their fans were definitely excited, he added.

"Nebraska had to play against the odds but I think our players knew they were going to go out and win anyway," he said.

"We dominated things for three quarters," Osborne said.

"Maybe I'm too nice of a guy but it has always been Nebraska's philosophy to play all the players on second unit," Osborne said in response to criticism directed to his use of the reserve defense in the fourth quarter.

When the rain let up, Osborne said, "it was a good throwing situation for Iowa State."

As for Kansas State, Osborne emphasized that the Cornhuskers will be in a tough position psychologically. He said the team must concentrate on this week's game and the Oklahoma contest will take care of itself.

Pop Art or Papa Cezanne, Needlepoints or drypoints, Mickey Mouse or the President's house—we'll frame it. Pictures of pachyderms, peacocks or pandas; photographs, lithographs, plain graphs—we'll frame it. Badges or buttons, drawings, diplomas—you have the fame we have the frame.

ICUSTOM FRAMING—ORIGINAL PRINTS

the printmaker 432-2163
134 N. 14th Closed
Tues-Sat 11-5:30, Sun, 2-5 Mondays

THE WATER HOLE

CHAMPAGNE

at Beer prices 35¢
Our Second Anniversary
Today - Wed. November 13th

Wonder Where College Kids go on Sunday Nights?

Bartlett's Red Barn

25 miles west of Lincoln on I-90

ALL YOUR FAVORITE BEVERAGES
PLUS
STEAKS, SHRIMP, CHICKEN
LIVE ENTERTAINMENT
Gentlemen Jim
and his Guitar 8-12 p.m. Saturday, March 2
BEER AND LIQUOR ON SUNDAY
Reasonable Prices — Friendly Bartenders

Rolling 201: HOW TO ROLL BETTER

Required Textbooklet: e-z wider Prof. E. Z. Jay

- Fold the paper (approx 1/4") at the end that isn't gummed. Sprinkle tobacco into this fold. Put more at the ends than in the middle. Close the paper over the tobacco. But don't tuck it in back of the tobacco just yet.
- Hold both halves of the paper, cradling the tobacco inside with your thumbs closest to you and your second and third fingers in back.
- Spin the tobacco by sliding the paper back and forth a number of times.
- When the tobacco is shaped and packed, pinch the tobacco and the paper at the center so that when you start to roll, the paper will guide itself around the tobacco.
- Roll the cigarette lightly, beginning at the center, and by pulling, work your fingers out to the ends.
- Lick the gummed edge closed. Trim loose tobacco from the ends. The cigarette is now ready to smoke.

This course is open to both beginning and advanced students of hand-rolled cigarettes. Emphasis is on easier, better rolling via the use of E-Z Wider double-width rolling papers. The course exposes the disadvantages of conventional rolling practices such as sticking two regular papers together to roll one smoke. Students will learn that there is no better gummed paper made than E-Z Wider.

RISK GAYED INSURANCE

WE WRITE: CANCELLED - REFUSED
FIRE & HOMEOWNERS

LOW COST
PREFERRED RATES FOR SAFE DRIVERS

IMMEDIATE SR22 FILINGS
CALL FOR INFORMATION

LET "RISK" HANDLE YOUR RISKS

464-8285 525 N. 48