

Committee description approved

A description of the professional conduct committee and a revised description of the academic freedom and tenure committee was submitted to the UNL Faculty Senate and approved at Tuesday's meeting.

The professional conduct committee will advise appropriate personnel on professional teaching standards and investigate violations of professional conduct, the report stated.

The committee will consist of six tenured faculty members serving a term of three years. Two of the members will be elected by the Senate.

The academic freedom and tenure committee will investigate any important action or policy relating to academic freedom and tenure at UNL, according to the report.

This will also be a six-member committee, two members elected by the Senate and membership will be three years.

The next Senate meeting is scheduled for Dec. 12.
