RACTIME

60 YEARS AGO

Nov. 15, 1914—Sympathy is a desirable thing. But it is not enough. The sincere sympathy of 100,000,000 Americans is appreciated by the Belgians. But they cannot live on that alone. They are in dire need of clothing and food. Shall not prosperous Nebraskans come to the aid of these peasants stricken by a war not of their making? What is that proverb about a friend in need is a friend in deed? Belgium, assuredly, is measuring us by that rule.
