Minority students dance at Ramada Inn Saturday

Minority students can find a "cultural outlet" in a dance Saturday at 8:30 p.m., a member of the sponsoring fraternity, Kappa Alpha Psi, said Wednesday.

Derrick Johnson said the band Soul-Steal will provide entertainment directed toward minority students.

"Most dances in Lincoln are directed to white students," he said. "At this dance, minority students can hear the music they want to hear."

The dance will be at the Ramada Inn and tickets will be sold only at the door. Single tickets are $2.50, and tickets for couples are $4.
