MINGUS
Directed by Thomas Reichman
U.S.A. 1966 60 minutes
Charles Mingus, renowned bassist and composer, was filmed during a turbulent night as he and his daughter awaited the arrival of the city marshal and police who are about to evict him from his Bowery loft for non-payment of rent. The film offers a very personal portrait of Mingus going through "hard times", a complex, proud and humiliated man who is known to be volatile, petulant and violent, but who is, beyond all else, an extraordinary musician. "It is the first jazz film about jazz. Understand the plight of the man, hear his music!"

The Village Voice
