Texas Instruments
 SR-50 Electronic Slide Rule.

~~$149.95~~

now $139.95

complete with rechargeable
 battery pack and AC
 adapter/charger.

Perhaps one of the most sophisticated hand-held calculators ever developed. The SR-50 performs all classical slide rule functions and has a complete algebraic keyboard. Versatile electronic memory allows storage and recall of numbers, plus sum mode for accumulation to memory. Bright, easy to read 14-character display.

Its many features and functions are too numerous to detail here, so be sure to ask for a demonstration at your nearest TEAM Center.

Koss K/6 Stereo headphones

An extremely good value for both beginning and experienced music lovers. Has a frequency range of 10-16,000 Hz for great listening at both ends of the audio spectrum and is lightweight for hours of comfortable wearing and musical enjoyment.
