The African Student Organization will meet at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Nebraska Union, Rm. 232.

Three hours of Fun Films will be presented by the Baha'i Association Saturday, in the Union Small Auditorium from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 10 p.m. The films' stars will include Laurel and Hardy and W.C. Fields. Admission will be 35 cents for singles and 50 cents for couples.

Saturday is the deadline for applications for Spanish 398f (not Feb. 25 as mentioned in Thursday's paper). The course includes trips to such South American cities as Lima, Trujillo, Guayaquil, Riobamba and Quito. Applicants must have had Spanish 202 or equivalent. For additional information or application forms, contact Hector Romero in Oldfather 1110, 472-3745, or the Flights and Study Tours Office, Union 204.

The Student Social Work Organization will have a Valentine's Day party at 8 p.m. tonight for all social work students. It will be at Maggies, 1825 West Avon Lane.

BACKTIME 60 YEARS AGO

Friday, Febr. 12, 1915—The New York Symphony Orchestra, with Walter Damrosch as conductor, has been secured for the annual May Festival. Two concerts will be given with the University Chorus. Several renowned soloists are also on the program.

An innovation in the form of an afternoon mixer is promised for Charter Day. This being a holiday, all the students and faculty will have an opportunity of attending if they haven't had a chance to attend one of these functions before.

At a late hour last evening Doctor Bessey's condition was very critical. He remained much the same throughout yesterday; but became restless last evening and seemed somewhat weaker.
