

magee's

Q.F.S.

A really new look in blue jean denim.

Who says there's nothing new in blue jeans. We don't because Q.F.S. doesn't. Here are three nifty new ways to look very '75 in classic 100% cotton blue jean denim. And all are styled for the junior girl who wears a size 5 to 13. See 'em all in our Where It's at Shops, Downtown and Gateway.

Left: Denim skirt with rounded pockets and orange contrast stitching. $12.

Center: The bibbed skirt, slash pocketed and contrast-stitched in orange. $16.

Right: The new-look jeans with button-flap pockets (including one that's zippered) and lots of orange contrast stitching. $16.

Magee's Downtown 10 a.m.-5:30 p.m. Thursday 'til 9:00
 Magee's Gateway 10 a.m.-9 p.m., Tuesday, Saturday 'til 6:00

Whole NU Catalog revived this semester

It's been gone for a while, but now it's back.

After a three-semester absence, the Whole NU Catalog will appear on the UNL campus, courtesy of the ASUN Education Committee, the UNL Teaching Council and the UNL Teaching and Learning Center.

Sherry Cole, committee chairwoman, said the booklet of subjective student course evaluations will be ready by March 17, a week before preregistration begins for next fall.

Evaluation forms and boxes for returning them are available at all residence halls and at the Nebraska Union north desk and should be available in Greek houses, Cole said. Students have until Feb. 26 to complete the forms.

"One of the problems is trying to reach as many students as we can," she said.

10,000 forms printed

With 10,000 forms printed this year, she said, she hopes the catalog will have more than the 80 entries the first catalog had when it was published for the 1973 spring semester.

Students who do not have an evaluation form, can use note cards or paper, she said.

Students are asked to initial the recommendation, but not necessarily to supply their names. However, Cole said, the committee would like the students' names "in case we have any questions because we can't read something."

The forms will be photocopied for publication so that they appear just as the student submitted them, she said.

After the forms are received, she said, a committee will read them and arrange them according to courses for the final catalog.

The Teaching Council will pay for all costs of the catalog, Cole said.

For, by students

The Whole NU Catalog is "for students, by students," to recommend courses to take, she said. It is to serve as a recommendation booklet, rather than "a don't take this course" booklet, she said.

"We decided that a recommendation booklet will be more helpful than one that says not to take a course," she said. "We want to show students there are alternatives."

One of the reasons the catalog was discontinued was disagreement on what functions it should serve, she said.

Another reason it failed was lack of time, she said. At that time, the education committee was busy trying to work on improving the Nebraska Free University (NFU) and it did not have enough time for the catalog, she said.

However, she said, "We hope this is something we can have every semester, now."

calendar

Friday	Luncheon—Union Pewter Room.
8 a.m.—Speech Dept. - Collegiate Debate Tournament—Nebraska Union Rooms 216, 222, 232, 337, 343 and Small Auditorium.	Luncheon - Union 203
10:15 a.m.—Debate Tournament Coaches - Union 202 A	1:30 p.m.—American Pharmaceutical Association - Union 202
12:15 p.m.—Debate Tournament Coaches -	2:30 p.m.—Student Alumni Board Interviews - Union 242
12:15 p.m.—Dean Larsen	3 p.m.—Exxon Foundation - Piaget Program - Union 243
	7:30 p.m.—Inter Varsity Christian Fellowship - Union 202

Cattmann's

presents

KIRK ORR

Singer guitarist

of the

Mike Douglas Show

8:00 to 12:30

Wednesday thru Saturday

Cattmann's

Lounge

10th & 'O'