

Sheldon Art Gallery
12th & R Sts.

An Evening of Films from the Sheldon Art Gallery Collection featuring:

EPHESUS by Fred Padula
JEFFERSON CIRCUS SONGS by Suzan Pitt Kraning
TO THE LOVED ONES AT HOME by John Spence
& Ted Kooser
ARROW TO THE SUN by Gerald McDermott
37-73 and DA by Richard Myers
Screening begins at 7:30 p.m. Sat, March 8
(and will be over by 10)

Admission free!

SALE

SAVE 25%

COSMETICS

Revlon
AfroSheen
Nail Polish
Lipstick
Hair Care
Eye Make-Up
Liquid Make-Up

campus book store
13th & R Sts.

Dahl short story collection well-written adult fantasies

Switch Bitch by Roald Dahl. Random House Books, New York, N.Y. $5.95.

Author Roald Dahl is most famous for his children's books, such as "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory"—well-written fantasies that have gained a solid reputation as good reading for kids.

In his collection of short stories, Switch Bitch, Dahl presents the reader with a set of adult fantasies. One can easily imagine that, writing those stories, Dahl kept his balance as a writer. His stories, filled with stylish, mild, erotic madness, are as attractive to mature readers as his chocolate factory work is to children.

It would be spoiling the fun to reveal the plots of the four stories in this collection. Yes, they are about sex, but they are also about people, frustrations and times past and present. One concerns a cologne (which bears the name of the second word in the book title) that has the ridiculous effect of making an animal out of any man who approaches a woman who wears the cologne. What happens to this invention along the way provides delightful reading.

It's refreshing to read a book that teases both

vince boucher footnotes

the intellect and the more elemental senses, yet doesn't leave one feeling that the book is junky. Dahl is funny and observant, and gives enough detail to make his stories believable. Yet he writes in a simple manner, letting the far-fetched fantasies provide the sparks of his stories.

'Earth Below' — buried Hendrix

Review by Steve Cogley

Robin Trower has another album out, For Earth Below.

Trower, former lead guitarist of Procol Harum, could be called Jimi Hendrix Jr. To say Trower's style is only influenced by Hendrix is wrong; it's dominated by Jimi.

The first time I heard Trower's second album, Bridge Of Sighs, I thought some more good Hendrix material was upon us. The technique was there, the style, everything right down to how the bassist plunked and the drummer drummed. The only obvious difference were the vocals. However, I do wish Trower would expand on some of Hendrix' talents and techniques, rather than just copying them.

For Earth Below is good material, but typically so. Trower gets in his licks, singer James Dewar handles the vocals and bass well and Billy Lordan keeps things going on the drums.

The album has four fine cuts; the rest are only above average. "Shame The Devil" starts things off nicely and, while no song really jumps out, "Aethea" comes closest. "Gonna Be More Suspicious" and the title cut include some fine Trower guitar.

There are four good reasons to buy this album. If you like guitar, this is your album. If you don't have a Trower album this would be a good start. If you're a Hendrix fan this is, of course, the closest thing to Jimi that we have. And finally, the album, is, quite simply, musically sound and well-produced.

short stuff

The American Home Economics Association is sponsoring a presentation of spring fashions by Fran Fiala tonight at 6:30 in the Home Economics Building 31.

The Student's Asian Studies Association is having a meeting tonight at 7 in the Nebraska Union. There will be a slide presentation of urban and rural Taiwan.

"Million Dollar Legs," a synchronized swim show, will be put on by the Aquaettes today through Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Women's Physical Education pool. Admission is $1.

Complete information on an extensive schedule of low-cost charter flights is available from the Flights & Study Tours Office, 204 Nebraska Union, 472-2485. There are no eligibility requirements for these charters and all flights have been authorized by the U.S. Civil Aeronautics Board.

Students wishing to express their views on the financing of UWAG, Phi Beta Lambda, National Speech and Hearing Association and E-Week may come to the open hearing of the Fees Allocation Board today at 5:15 in the Nebraska Union. A schedule for the meeting and copies of budget and subcommittee reports are available in Nebraska Union 200.

The Council on Student Life Subcommittee on Student Organizations will be making appointments to the Fees Allocation Board. Those wishing to apply should submit a letter of application to the Student Activities Office by April 1. Forms are available in the Student Activities Office. For further information contact Chris Batie, Chairman or Jack Guthrie in the Student Activities office, 472-2484.

PEACE CORPS/VISTA

Volunteers needed with degrees in the following skill areas:

JOURNALISM	AGRICULTURE
BUSINESS	LAW
EDUCATION	ENGINEERING
MATH	HOME ECON.
ARCHITECTURE	SPANISH/FRENCH

Recruiters on campus March 10-13, 1975.

Seniors and grads pick up information packet and sign up for an interview at the Placement Office.

Anyone interested in Spring or Summer programs must apply during this drive.