

Brass group's finale is variety of styles

Baroque, classical, romantic impressionism and contemporary styles will be heard at the Brass Ensemble's spring concert at 8 p.m. Thursday in Kimball Hall.

The ensemble will demonstrate this range of styles in the concert finale, "Horn Musical Styles Based on a Familiar Theme," arranged by Lennie Niehaus.

Directed by Jack R. Snider, the Ensemble will also play "Sonate from die Bankelsangerlieder," written in 1684 by an unknown composer and Mozart's "Allegro from Eine Kleine Nachtmusik."

Music by Giovanni Gabrieli, Johan Pezel, Vern Reynolds and Marcel Dupre also will be performed.

RHA Constitutional Amendments

Passed by the RHA Council on March 12, 1975

To be voted on by all residents of UNL Residence Halls on March 31, 1975

Amendment No. 1

Amend Article IV, Section 1, Paragraph C, Line 1, of the Constitution to read: The date of the election shall be determined by the election committee, with approval of a majority of the Council.

Amend Article V, Section 4, Paragraph D, Line 2 of the Constitution to read: To determine and publish the dates and procedures for filings and elections and to issue at the request of candidates advisory opinions as to the legality of proposed methods in election campaigns.

Amend Article V, Section 4, Paragraph D, Line 3, Part b of the Constitution to read: To establish at the beginning of the second semester regulations and dates for the elections with the consent of the Council.

Explanation of Amendment No. 1

Presently, the Constitution states that elections must be held in the month of March. Amendment No. 1 would give the electoral commission more flexibility plus more responsibility.

Amendment No. 2

Amend Article V, Section 2, Paragraph B of the Constitution to include Line 4 which shall read: To assist the President in the execution of his duties.

Explanation of Amendment No. 2

This amendment would put into writing what is now a common practice. Presently, the vice-president has very few duties constitutionally.
