

Justice majors get UNL graduation

After much controversy, UNL criminal justice majors will now graduate from UNL instead of UNO.

The NU Board of Regents voted March 21 to allow UNL students in the University of Nebraska at Omaha (UNO) based program to attend UNL graduation ceremonies and have University of Nebraska, Lincoln-Omaha printed on their diplomas.

Prior to the regent decision the 440 criminal justice majors were required to be graduated from UNO even though they never attended classes on the UNO campus.

Pleased with action

Martin Crowley, criminal justice major's representative, said he was very pleased by the Regents action.

He said he was glad the regents acted so quickly, insuring the present UNL seniors graduation at UNL.

Crowley, an Omaha senior had been pushing for the graduation change since last year when he found out he was required to be graduated at UNO.

Merger

The criminal justice department was established in 1962 at UNO. When UNL and UNO merged in 1968 the criminal justice department became part of the UNO College of Public Affairs and Community Services.

Along the way, criminal justice courses were offered at UNL, but degrees in criminal justice were awarded from UNO.

Fred Holbert, vice chairman of the department on the Lincoln campus, is a faculty member and is paid by UNO.

Holbert said he was very happy about the decision. "It makes the situation much easier to deal with," he said.

Player confusion

Among those affected by the ruling are Nebraska football players John Lee and Ron Pruitt. The two "black shirts" are junior criminal justice majors.

Before the ruling the pair technically played for the UNO Maverick football team, depending on who you talked to.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) said there was no regulation to cover such a situation, which Jim Delany, a member of the NCAA enforcement division termed unique.

Crowley said if the fluke had not been brought to light he doubted anything would have been done, but, he said the Regents decision was a very nice surprise.

Taste Tempting Mexican Food where your Dollar buys more.

Weekdays
till 11:00
Fri. & Sat.
til 1:00am

831 N. 48
1110 So. st.

VENEZUELAN FESTIVAL
UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA-
Lincoln
APRIL 5-25

MUSIC

- April 7— Concert by Freddy Reyna, 8 p.m., Kimball Recital Hall. Folk songs accompanied on Cuatro, Venezuelan folk guitar.
- April 8— Recital by Morelia Munoz, 8 p.m., Kimball Recital Hall. Folk songs by noted mezzo soprano, accompanied by Nina de Iwaneck.
- April 16— Recital by Fedora Aleman, 8 p.m., Kimball Recital Hall. Songs by internationally known Venezuelan soprano accompanied by Nina de Iwaneck.
- April 20— Recital by Sonia Sanoja, 8 p.m., Women's Physical Education Bldg. Program of modern and folk dance in Dance Studio.
- April 23— Grupo de Folklore Venezolano, 8 p.m., Kimball Recital Hall. Program of folk dances by international touring company..

ART

- April 14-
May 2— Exhibition at Sheldon Art Gallery.
Sculpture by Pedro Barreto, Gabriel Marco, Carlos Prada.
Painting by Domingo Alvarez, Alejandro Otero, Omar Carreno, Alirio Rodriguez.
Graphics by Mateo Manaure, Teresa Casanova, Luis Guevara-Moreno, Gladys Meneses, Luisa Ritter.
Tapestry by Maria Teresa Torras.
Enamels by Lamis Feldan.

LECTURES

- April 11— Jamine Telló, Venezuelan literature, 3:30 p.m., Nebraska Union.
April 15— Roberto Guevara, Venezuelan art, 3:30 p.m., Sheldon Auditorium.
April 17— Marco T. Bruni-Celi, Venezuelan political development, 3:30 p.m., Nebraska Union.
April 24— Jose A. Abreu, Venezuelan economic development, 3:30 p.m., Nebraska Union.

"Audiovisual de Venezuela," a 20-minute program will be in continuous showing at the Nebraska Union.

The Venezuelan government is making a gift of 430 Venezuelan books to the University. The volumes will be on display in Love Library throughout the festival. Special thanks to Editorial Monte Avila for this generous gift.

OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

NO ADMISSION CHARGE

Sponsored by the Republic of Venezuela as a contribution to the Bicentennial of the United States in cooperation with the University's Institute for International Studies.

Sure There's a Shortage of LEVI'S® ...

But not at KING OF JEANS

It's true... there really is a Jean shortage.
But those who come to King of Jeans would never know it.
In fact, at King of Jeans there's a LEVI'S® surplus.

Whatever size LEVI'S® you want, color you need, or style you like, King of Jeans has it.

Lets say you want a size 32x36 in LEVI'S® bell bottom Jean.
At most stores you'll hear "sorry, we're all out - you see there's a jean shortage."

At King of Jeans you'll hear "How many do you need?"

It's a fact - all you have to do is try us and you'll discover one thing... whatever jean you want we've got it!

Hurry on Down to

KING OF JEANS

under Douglas 3 at 13th & P
"The Home of LEVI'S"

