

Speakers starts Pow Wow activities

Alfonso Ortiz, professor of anthropology at the University of New Mexico, will speak this afternoon at 2 p.m. in the Nebraska Union Ballroom. The speech is part of the 1975 Indian Pow Wow activities, today through Sunday, sponsored by the Council of American Indian Students (CAIS).

Ortiz is author of The Tewa World: Space, Time, Being, and Becoming in a Pueblo Society published by the University of Chicago Press.

Ortiz also edited New Perspectives on the Pueblos and "has been a constant contributor to various anthropological journals and historical journals," according to Charles Lapointe, CAIS president.

Activities

Positions on the National Humanities Faculty, the Newberry Library Center for the Study of Indian History, the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the Social Science Research Council are among his current activities.

Ortiz has been involved with Pima-Maricopa tribal land claims and other contemporary American Indian affairs, according to Lapointe.

Research grants for American Indian history research and other projects have been awarded to Ortiz through the Coordinating Committee for Foreign and International Affairs, the American Philosophical Society, the Doris Duke Foundation and the Ford Foundation.

Editor

Ortiz is a Fellow of the American Anthropological Association and the Royal Anthropological Institute.

He also was editor of the Southwest Handbook of North American Indians published by the Smithsonian Institution.

Ortiz taught at Pitzer College in Claremont, Calif., Princeton University and Livingston College in England before becoming a professor at the University of New Mexico in 1974.

Following his speech, Ortiz will participate in a panel discussion about the program.

This evening a Gourd Dance (the Gourd Clans or Warrior Societies) is on the Pow Wow agenda.

The traditional Pow Wow will be Saturday and Sunday and will include dance contests. Finals for the contests will be Sunday evening.

short stuff

Ernest Eliel is speaking on "Highly Stereoselective Reactions" today at 3:30 p.m. in Hamilton 110. All interested students are invited.

The African Students Association is having an emergency meeting Saturday at 7 p.m. in the Nebraska Union to appoint a representative to the Foreign Students Seminar, May 18.

University Studies is sponsoring Idiot's Delight, a love story/drama set at the outbreak of WW II, tonight at 8 in Henzlik Auditorium. Accompaniment is by Straight.

Ma Fin Est Ma Commencement an original theatre piece by Randall Snyder, is playing tonight and Saturday at 8 p.m. in the Community Playhouse, 2500 S. 56th St. This is the "Writer's Showcase" production of the Gallery Theatre, the last for this season.

Students in mechanical engineering from seven universities are competing in the presentation of research papers at a conference being held in the Nebraska Engineering Center today and Saturday. It is sponsored by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Students who dropped courses this semester during the five-week refund period are urged to stop at the Bursar's Office, Administration Building 204, to pick up tuition refunds.

Friday, April 18, the Fees Allocation Board mailed letters of final recommended allocations to organizations requesting funds. If an organization has not received this letter, a copy is posted in Student Activities, Nebraska Union 200.

Any woman interested in auditioning for the Miss University of Nebraska-Miss Lincoln title for the Miss Nebraska pageant in July contact Steve Myers, 483-1909, between 5:30 and 7 p.m.

ON THE WAY TO PIONEER'S PARK STOP AT

MAP TO PIONEER

1 Lee's Restaurant
2 Tee Driving Range
3 Sittler's Off-Sale
4 Schriers

Lee's

Come try our famous southern-fried chicken, steaks and lobster. We cater any size picnic or party.

Lee's Restaurant
at West Van Dorn near Pioneer Park

SCHRIER'S
FOOD STORE 10th & SOUTH

GROCERIES	Falstaff Beer	2 59	12 PACK WARM
MEATS	Madria-Madria Sangria	1 49	FIFTH
BEER	Wisconsin Club Beer	2 19	LOWEST PRICE IN TOWN
WINE
LIQUOR

SCHRIER'S Open everyday 'til 10 pm

Stop by Tee Driving Range and sharpen up your golf game

Tee Driving Range
1644 West Van Dorn

During the hot summer months come on out and pick up some of your favorite beverages
We're OPEN SUNDAYS!

Lee Sittler Off-Sale
500 West Van Dorn

Fall Employment Advertising, Marketing Majors

The DAILY NEBRASKAN is looking for six to eight juniors or seniors majoring in advertising or marketing to serve as account executives.

Each account executive will be provided with established accounts to service and you will be expected to sell new accounts during the semester. Salary is by commission and averages $100 to $200 a month (and more). The hours are flexible and you can work around your classes.

Advertising sales experience is helpful, but not necessary. All individuals will be expected to participate in a three day training workshop in August. This is an ideal part-time job for students interested in careers in advertising, marketing and sales.

APPLY:
Room 34, Union before Friday, May 2