ETV airs 'Nile search'

The true story about the epic quest for the source of the Nile River—a venture which became an obsession with five Englishmen and one American in the mid 19th century—is dramatized in "The Search for the Nile," a six-part series premiering Sunday at 9:30 on the Nebraska ETV Network.

The journeys of the six strong-willed explorers are constructed in this dramatic series. The first episode, "The Dream of the Wanderer," introduces the extraordinary writer-explorer-rebel Sir Richard Burton (played by Kenneth Haigh). The search for the Nile's source begins as Burton asks gentleman-adventurer John Hanning Speke (John Quentin) to join him on an expedition deep into Central Africa.

The next five episodes of "The Search for the Nile" will be broadcast on Sundays at 2:30 p.m.

Other programs of special interest to Nebraska ETV viewers include:

—"The Man of Destiny," a comedy by George Bernard Shaw, stars Stacy Keach and Samantha Eggar. This "Hollywood Television Theatre" presentation airs Sunday at 3:30 p.m. in the Nebraska ETV Network.

All-state plans events

Beatles and Beach Boys tunes.

—Wednesday, 7:30 p.m. All State Band and Chorus Concert, Kimball Recital Hall.

The 90-member band of All State students is directed by Jack R. Snider. The program includes "Fugue and Chorale on Yankee Doodle" by Virgil Thompson and "American Civil War Fantasy" by Jerry Belick.

The All State Chorus, directed by Raymond Miller, will perform "Gloria" and "Cum Sante Spiritu" by Vivaldi, Sanctus from "Mass" by Leonard Bernstein and a series of American folk songs.

—Friday, 1:30 p.m. All State Theatre Acting Scenes, Nebraska Union basement auditorium.

—7:30 p.m. All State Dance and Orchestra Concert, Kimball Recital Hall.

Thirty-three students and three teachers, including nationally known performers Flemming Halby and Richard Croskey, will present a program of ballet, jazz and modern dance. The orchestra, conducted by Emanuel Wishnow, professor of music and violin, will play the allegro movement of Beethoven's "Symphony No. 5 in C minor", "French Military March" by Saint-Saens.

Saturday, 9:00 a.m. All State Theatre Acting scenes, Nebraska Union basement auditorium.

9:30 a.m. Dance Program, Women's Physical Education Building, Room 304.

10:30 a.m. All State final debate, Westbrook Music Building, Room 119.

The debaters will argue the need of an international organization to control "the development and allocation of scarce world resources."

7:30 p.m. All State final concert, Sheldon Sculpture Garden. The concert will feature final performances by vocal, instrumental and dance groups, according to Gary Neuhaus, All-State program director.
