

editorial / opinion

innocent bystander

Dead man buried, truth must not be 'Nation's ills require new Gospel

Whatever the results of a federal investigation into the shooting death of Sherdell Lewis, we will be greatly disappointed if this question is not answered:

Why was it deemed necessary to arm 12 men, some with shotguns, for a drug raid on the home of a man who was known for his history of peaceful relations with local police?

The question must not be ignored; it has a direct bearing on the state of law enforcement's involvement with Lincoln's black community.

Lewis is being buried today. We hope the truth about his death will not be buried with him.

Rebecca Britte

By Arthur Hoppe

"One of the problems in this country is that we have this Judeo-Christian heritage of wanting to help those in need," Vice President Rockefeller disclosed in a speech in Dallas.

And therefore, he said, "now we are in financial trouble."

Actually, Rockefeller is mistaken. This Judeo-Christian heritage is not just one of the problems we have. It's the worst.

What's needed, obviously, is a new Judeo-Christian heritage based on one of the lesser-known chapters of the Bible, "The Gospel According to St. Pontius." Chapter and verse follow:

And seeing the multitudes He went up into a mountain: And when his disciples came unto Him, He taught them, saying,

Blessed are the poor in spirit, for they shall labor for less than the minimum wage.

Blessed are the meek, for they shall not foment strikes and strife.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst, for they do furnish a ready market for Hostess Twinkies and Coca-Cola.

Blessed are the persecuted, for they do enrich their persecutors.

Rejoice and be exceedingly glad that you are rich: For the rich toil not, neither do they spin. And cast ye out the welfare idlers.

And it came to pass that when He had ended His Sermon on the Mount and was come down from the mountain, a beggar came unto him, saying, Lord, I am cold and hungry.

And He smote the beggar on the left cheek and took from him his tattered robe, saying, Get thee off the welfare rolls and onto the payrolls. And remember thee The Golden Rule: Do unto others as they would do unto you. But do it unto them first.

(Copyright Chronicle Publishing Co. 1975)

1975-76 AUDUBON WILDLIFE FILMS FIVE OUTSTANDING PROGRAMS

Friday, Oct. 17, 1975
"WEST SIDE STORY - MEXICO TO ALASKA" with Walter H. Berlet. Takes us up the beautiful western coast of North America. Birds, otters, sea lions, Kodiak bears are all encountered in their natural habitats.

Nature Films
Personally Narrated
by the Producers

Monday, Nov. 24, 1975
"FLORIDA'S CYPRESS SANCTUARY FISHEATING CREEK." by Richard Kern explores the 400 acres of land Kern and 9 others purchased to preserve with its wildlife. Dragonflies, spiders, wasps, otter and alligator all are a part of the beauty of their land.

Friday, Jan. 9, 1976
"THE MARSH - A QUIET MYSTERY" with Tom Sterling explores the marshes and their wildlife in Michigan, Utah, Oregon, and Ontario. Once there were 127 million acres of wetlands in the U.S., but now less than 50% are left.

Tuesday, Feb. 3, 1976
"WILDLIFE BY DAY AND BY NIGHT" by Steve Maslowski chronicals the day and night activities of a wide variety of midwestern wildlife. Time-lapse photography and natural sound effects are included in this splendid film.

Tuesday, April 27, 1976
"FOUR FATHOM WORLD" with Harry Pederson is an undersea adventure which acquaints you with squids, octopuses and sharks. Filmed among the Bahama reefs, it also features trunkfish, hogfish, jawfish, green turtles and the sargassum weed.

Presented in Lincoln at
NEBRASKA CENTER FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION
33rd and Holdrege Streets
by

The University of Nebraska - Lincoln Extension Division, State Museum and Nebraska for Continuing Education and the National Audubon Society.
EVENING (7:30 p.m.) PERFORMANCES

Season Ticket Prices:
Adults ----- $7.00
Students and
"over 60" ----- $5.00

Single Admission Prices:
Adults ----- $1.75
Students ----- $1.25

Tickets on Sale at:
MILLER & PAINE STATE MUSEUM
Service Desks Morrill Hall
Downtown & Gtwy. Room 106

NEBRASKA CENTER FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION EXTENSION DIVISION
33rd & Holdrege 511 Nebraska Hall
Tel: 472-2947 901 North 17th St.
Tel: 472-2171

TYPEWRITER RENTAL

SMITH-CORONA ELECTRIC PORTABLE

Reasonable Rates

No Deposit Required

By The Week $8

By The Month $20

UNIVERSITY BOOKSTORES

"THE ONLY OFFICIAL ON CAMPUS STORE"

Nebraska State East Campus
Lower Level 472-2888 472-2888 Robinson Hall

Enjoy KLIN Stereo 107 and you'll Enjoy studying

Better music.
Better mood.
Better grades.

KLIN

STEREO 107