NUPIRG stands for Nebraska University Public Interest Research Group. NUPIRG is a student organization concerned with the development and coordination of student research projects involving students in community issues. Both community and student benefit from such involvement. The community is provided with helpful information. The student gains from the interaction with other students and citizens. A student can benefit even more from involvement when she or he receives credit.

So the following is a list of some topics and classes in which students could receive credit for applied research.

CITIZEN REPRESENTATION ON LOCAL GOVERNING AND REGULATORY BOARDS IN NEBRASKA. Contact Prof. Richard Schonberger (CBA 221, 472-3373)
