

from a simple place and time

Bob Starck's photographic exhibition, "from a simple place and time," is at the Sheldon Memorial Art Gallery through Feb. 1.

Starck's black-and-white photographs are an unembellished, factual recording of people, places and objects. The photographs exhibited were taken during his recent travels in Europe, and are not of well-known or famous persons.

Starck is a UNL graduate. He and a colleague, Lynn Dance, now are working on a photographic documentation of Nebraska, to be produced as a Bicentennial project.
