

'Step right up—' Auditions, contests search for talent

By Charlie Krig

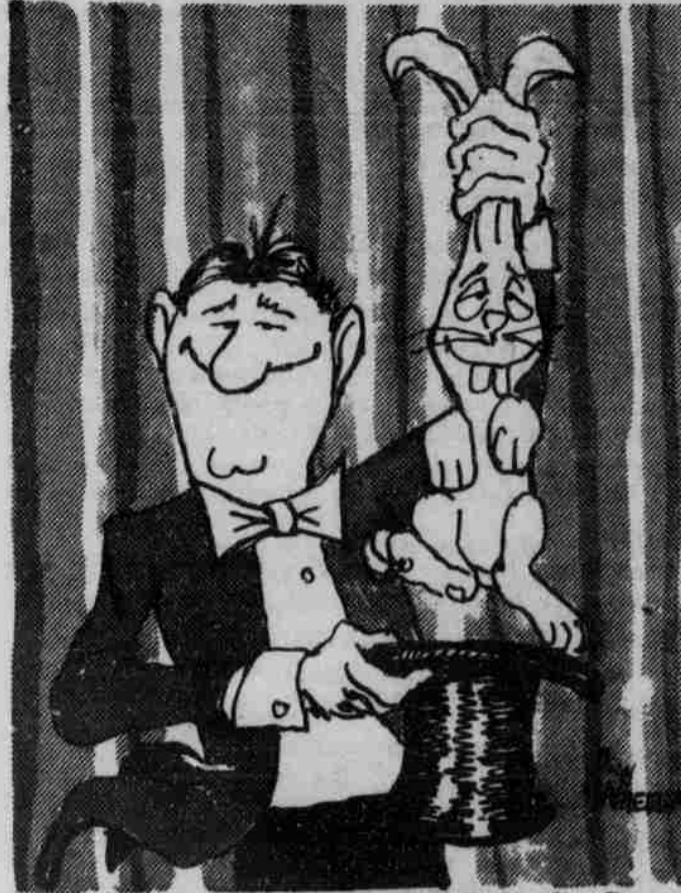

Here are some golden opportunities for all of you who are "bursting" with talent:

The Lincoln Community Playhouse needs five or six men and women for their next Gallery Theatre production, The World of Carl Sandburg. Auditions are tonight and Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Playhouse, 2500 S. 56th St. Specifically needed is a singer-guitarist; applicants are urged to bring an instrument and do a little strumming. Any one interested in doing technical work (lights, props, sets, etc.) also is invited to attend an audition.

Those with a playwriting talent can enter the Bicentennial Playwriting Contest sponsored by the Nebraska State Repertory Company, Norton Theatre, 520 S. 10th St., Omaha, 68102. Write to that address for application forms and more information.

Contest requirements are: (1) The play must be original and unpublished; (2) it must be full-length, and (3) it must deal with America's history or examine our present and future values.

Those who do not fit into one of the above categories can find solace in the upcoming Worlds of Fun auditions. The Kansas City amusement park needs singers, dancers, actors, comedians, magicians and variety acts. According to their publicity, stage or park performers are needed in the Tivoli Music Hall, Moulin Rouge, western gunfights, melodramas, barbershop quartets and other forms of family entertainment.

Auditions are Jan. 27 at 2 p.m. in 119 Westbrook Music Bldg. For information, contact Show Productions Dept., 4545 Worlds of Fun Ave., Kansas City, Mo. 64161.

THE EPIC DOCUMENTARY FILM ON THE STRUGGLE IN LATIN AMERICA

".....the most spectacular example of agit-prop moviemaking so far....an emotional assault....highly sophisticated (and) conceived on an epic scale.... A movie like this is a gun in a struggle, and a far more effective gun than Godard's revolutionary movies, because though it may aim at both the heart and the mind, it strikes the heart."
