"When the child's parents enter the second level, they can help all mankind by showing it 'the truth,'" Reach said.

Before anyone reaches the second level "the two," as they call Bo and Peep must be assassinated by someone who is against the cause, Reach said.

To make a total impact they should be assassinated in public, Reach said. In three days, he said, their bodies will be resurrected.

After the resurrection, all the faithful will be spirited away to the second level "without tasting death," Reach said.

Hickory, Reach and Tuna denied reports that Bo and Peep were becoming nervous about guns.

"They don't fear death," Reach said. "But they have to die at the right time and place."

Assassination

Even though followers will enter the second level of existence after Bo and Peep are assassinated, neither Hickory, Reach nor Tuna is looking forward to the assassination, they said.

"It's a morbid thought," Tuna said. Reach added that followers still had much work to do before the time to leave this level arrives.

And if Bo and Peep are assassinated and do not happen to rise from the dead? Well, the three contend, their experience still will have been worthwhile.

"I feel it's the will of God," Tuna said, "and if they don't rise from the dead it certainly has not been time lost."

Tuna quickly added that he does not want to imply that he does not believe what is happening.

"It's just the realistic side of me that sometimes doubts," he said. "Maybe I used the wrong word—I should say the 'accultured' side of me."

Bo and Peep not messiahs

Bo and Peep have been avoiding public meetings, but Tuna and Reach contend they are not trying to avoid assassination.

"They want to discourage people from worshipping them instead of God," Tuna said.

Tuna added that Bo and Peep "do not purport to be Christ. These people aren't doing miracles, rather spreading the message of Christ."

At the end of this level, all followers will be picked up by what looks like a UFO, and whisked away to the second level, according to Tuna.

Reach said atheists will cease to exist at the end of this level.

Ron Sutton, chief criminal deputy in Lincoln County, who was assigned to investigate the Waldport case, said rumors are circulating that Bo and Peep will be assassinated within the next few weeks.

Sutton added that Bo and Peep are rumored to have a life-sustaining drug, allowing them to die and come back to life.

Reach added that "the temptations are many to return to society."

"But those temptations are what we must learn to overcome. One reason most followers travel in male/female pairs is so followers can overcome sexual temptation," Reach said.

"In the second level, there are no sexes," he said. "Second level beings are eternal so there is no need for reproduction."

According to Hickory, followers are constantly communicating with the second level with brain waves.

Meeting sites predetermined?

According to the three, the second level guides followers to unplanned meeting places. However, Bruce Surber, of Iowa City, a one-time-follower, and his wife Cheryl, said the cult meets in predetermined towns, "mainly college towns."

"They usually camp outside of town," Surber said. "We were around Lincoln for awhile when we traveled with the cult. The three there now are probably just recruiting. That's all they ever do."

SPEED READING COURSE TO BE TAUGHT IN LINCOLN AREA

The Iowa Reading Lab, of Des Moines, will offer a 4 week course in speed reading to a limited number of qualified people in the Lincoln area. A person is required to attend only one 2½ hour class per week, on the evening of their choice for 4 weeks only. The course guarantees to triple the person's reading speed with a marked improvement in comprehension and concentration. The guarantee, however, is a bare minimum as the average graduate will read 7 to 10 times faster. They can read almost any average book in less than one hour.

For those who would like additional information, a series of free, one hour orientation lectures have been scheduled. At these free lectures the course will be explained in complete detail, including classroom procedures, instruction methods, class schedule and a special 1 time only introductory tuition that is less than one-third the cost of similar courses. You must attend only one of the free meetings for complete details. You may attend any of the meetings for information about the Lincoln classes.

These orientations are open to the public, above age 14, (persons under 18 should be accompanied by a parent if possible.)

If you have always wanted to be a speed reader but found the cost prohibitive or the course too time consuming... now you can! Just by attending 1 evening per week for 4 short weeks you can read 7 to 10 times faster, concentrate better; comprehend more.

If you are a student who would like to make A's instead of B's or C's or if you are a business person who wants to stay abreast of today's everchanging accelerating world, then this course is an absolute necessity. These Free one hour meetings will be held at the following times and places:

- Thursday, January 22nd, at 6:30 p.m. and again at 8:30 p.m.
 - Friday, January 23rd, at 6:30 p.m. and again at 8:30 p.m.
 - Saturday, January 24th, at 10:30 a.m. and again at 1:30 p.m.
 - Monday, January 26th, at 6:30 p.m. and again at 8:30 p.m.
- These meetings will be held in the conference room of the Radisson Cornhusker Hotel, located at 301 South 13th, downtown Lincoln.

If you are a businessman, student, housewife or executive, this course which took 5 years of intensive research to develop, is a must. You can read 7 - 10 times faster, comprehend more, concentrate better, and remember longer. Students are offered an additional discount. This course can be taught to industry or civic groups at "Group rates" upon request. Be sure to attend whichever free orientation that fits in your schedule.
