Gallery presents two lowa artists

During February, the Haymarket Art Gallery will feature the works of two lowans, John Gordon and Tom

Gordon, from Sioux City, will display seriographs and paintings Haymarket's literature describes him as a 'master of silk screen technique.'

Gordon's concepts are characterized by "clear, harmonious colors and simplified, stylized, thoughtful composition." Hamilton's exhibit will feature stoneware. He will display more than 300 pieces of pottery, a Haymarket spokesman said. The Haymarket also lists his style as "well-thrown" and "well-constructed" using "rich colors and strong designs."

Hamilton now is a Council Bluffs, Iowa art teacher. These shows will run until March 1.
