Committee to hear NU budget testimony

NU administrators Monday again will testify before the Appropriations Committee; this time, in response to Gov. J. James Exon's NU budget proposal.

The governor's bill offers $84 million, compared to the committee's bill, which offers $88 million. However, Exon's bill offers the NU Board of Regents greater flexibility in spending by specifying fewer appropriations: Central Administration, Campus Operations (UNL, the University of Nebraska at Omaha and the University of Nebraska Medical Center) and cash and other nontax funds. The bill also includes a general fund appropriation of $1.4 million for a regents' discretionary fund.

The committee also will hear testimony on a resolution, LR115, which would authorize regents to approve expenditures from the replacement of surplus fund of the University of Nebraska Student Fees and Facilities Revenue Bonds.

Money to be spent would include $680,450 for fire and safety maintenance on the Nebraska Union, housing units and the University Health Center. The resolution also authorizes the regents to spend an additional $1.3 million from the replacement funds for construction of the East Campus Union. Initially, construction estimates were $3 million, but inflation, according to NU administrators, pushed the total costs to $4.3 million.

Legislative Hearings

Committees, statehouse hearing room assignments, bills to be heard Monday and their sponsors are as follows. Hearings begin at 1:30 p.m. unless otherwise noted.
