The Legend of the Burritos, Cont.

In 1968 a legend was born—The Flying Burrito Brothers. They injected a fresh country twang into the folk/rock scene, influencing the musical heritage carried on by groups like The Byrds, The Eagles, Manassas and Stephen Stills.

Now they're back, "Flying Again," with the rocking good-time music and sweet harmonies that they made famous. The Burrito Brothers, "Flying Again."

ROSES AND ROMANCE FROM THE RAG

The Daily Nebraskan is again sponsoring a contest for the romantics of our time. Place a message to your Valentine in the Friday, Feb. 13th issue of the Daily Nebraskan.

The most romantic message, as judged by the Daily Nebraskan Cupid will allow its author to send a dozen red roses to anyone in Lincoln. Plus, the second and third prize winners will be awarded gifts for their loved ones also.

Fill out the form and bring or mail it to the Daily Nebraskan Office Room 34, Nebraska Union, before Thursday, February 12th at 1:00 p.m. If you can't afford to run an ad, bring us your message anyway, you still can win. Daily Nebraskan staff members are not eligible. No purchase necessary.
