

Municipal judges kill ticket policy; drivers must pay

"The enclosed ticket is presented to you because you have violated one of our traffic ordinances. As your host we extend to you the courtesy of dismissing two of your parking tickets a year..."

Under the courtesy ticket system, the Lincoln Police Dept. (LPD) dismissed two parking violations a year for motorists living outside Lancaster County, requiring that the tickets must be mailed to LPD within five days.

But motorists receiving courtesy tickets after Feb. 1 soon learned they would have to pay the $1 parking fine. Confusion occurred after Lincoln Municipal Court officials decided not to honor courtesy tickets issued after Feb. 1.

But some police officers, unaware of the policy change, continued to issue the tickets, said LPD Inspector Dean Leitner. However, he said, no courtesy tickets have been issued since March 8.

According to Municipal Court Judge Donald Grant, no one person was responsible for the policy change. It was the judges that "got the ball rolling," he said.

Although the "ethics" of issuing courtesy tickets has been questioned for several years, Grant said, municipal court officials only recently decided to do something about it.

"We were handling dozens of courtesy tickets a day," he said. "It was a question of whether the policy was fair to Lincoln residents. Why should they be the only ones penalized?"

City Atty. Charles Humble is drafting an ordinance which officially would recognize the courtesy ticket policy. Humble said the ordinance probably will be presented to the City Council within the next two weeks.
