

third dimension | smalltown, nebraska

The only train that goes through this small Nebraska town now is Amtrack—once a day. It doesn't even stop unless someone has a reservation to get on here. These benches used to be filled with people waiting for a train or waiting for someone traveling by train.

When the California Zephyr quit coming through this small Nebraska town, the Zephyr Cafe lost most of its business. Even though it is just across the street from the Burlington Northern Depot, the railroad men have stopped coming here for a good, home-style meal, and have started eating at the new hamburger stand in town. It's closed now, but the Zephyr Cafe silently salutes the passing of the railroad.

HERESY at your place!

Klipsch Heresy speakers could be the answer to your stereo needs. Unlike so-called "rock monitor speakers" that have boomy, over-emphasized bass, sizzly highs, and a laid-back midrange, the high efficiency, low distortion Klipsch Heresy speakers deliver clear, clean, accurate sound at rock listening levels. Down to the essentials, they're available in raw birch (above) at $496/pair; or in full-dress oiled walnut cabinets at $594/pair. Either way Klipsch Heresy speakers deliver clear, clean, accurate and loud. Stop in and give them a listen. Your ears will do the rest.
