

short stuff

Students interested in doing volunteer work this summer should contact Community Involvement Services, Nebraska Union 200.

The NU Dental College will have an open hearing on its policies and procedures relating to Title IX regulations today at noon in the Dental College Bldg. 115. The hearing will relate specifically to non-discriminatory policies regarding students and academic-administrative personnel in the college.

Gerald Prescott, a phycologist from University of Montana who has traveled worldwide collecting and studying algae, will speak today in Bessey Hall auditorium at 3:30 p.m.

Today is the deadline for reservations to Health Professions Day at the University of Nebraska Medical Center on April 24. Students interested should sign up in Bessey Hall.

The Society of Women Engineers will be meeting today at 7 p.m. in Nebraska Hall W131. The guest speaker will be Sharon Lippett, assistant personnel supervisor for Northwestern

Bell Telephone Co. of Omaha.

The Nebraska Union Program Council will discuss the future of its Black Activities Committee at its regular meeting Tuesday at 6 p.m. in the Union. All interested students are invited. Room number will be posted.

The State Department of Health Education and Shurtleff Ambulance Co. are sponsoring a two-part emergency course on heart massage and artificial respiration today and Wednesday from 3 to 5 p.m. in Nebraska Hall W128.

The UNL chapter of Mortar Board is sponsoring a daily booth this week in the Union north lobby from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., to offer information on UNL women's athletics during Women's Athletics Week,

April 12 through 16.

Any women's student organization interested in applying for interest money earned from the investment of funds left by the now defunct Associated Women Students should apply in writing to the Council on Student Life subcommittee on Student Organizations, courtesy of Jack Guthrie, Union 200, before May 1. The interest, which will amount to $264.28, will become available in June.

Chautauqua '76 billed in 8 towns

By Barbara Lutz

The repeat performance of Chautauqua, a touring company of UNL singers, dancers, speakers and craftsmen, is billed as a hit for its 1976 summer season in eight Nebraska towns.

Don Jacks, director of the 85-member cast, said, "the idea is to take university arts and humanities outstate to people who don't have an opportunity to see live drama, live dance, broadcasting and dynamic speakers."

Jacks also is assistant director of university information and was member of the publicity crew last summer.

The program, being planned since August 1975, will start in South Sioux City May 25 and 26 and continue with two-day stays in Bellevue, Beatrice, Grand Island, Kearney, Ogallala and Scottsbluff. It ends with a two-day stay in Chadron June 8 and 9.

This year's theme is a combination of the Bicentennial and a play, "The Awakening Conscience of America," he said.

The $80,000 budget is financed by the State Bicentennial Commission, the State Committee for the Humanities, the State Arts Council, the University of Nebraska Foundation and the National Endowment for the Arts.

Each community must guarantee an additional $3,500 from ticket sales it sets, Jacks said.

Chautauqua rents a tent for 1,500 people, and towns must furnish electricity, chairs, security and publicity, he said.

Jacks said last year's program touched on Nebraska's cultural heritage, this year, folk artists, craftsman, fiddlers, dulcimer players, blacksmiths and quilters will display their talents.

Other performers will be the UNL Scarlet and Cream singers, the NU dance ensemble, the Nebraska Repertoire Theatre, UNL debate team, local talent and speakers.

John Salisbury, president of the Radio, News and Television Directors Association; Andy Montgomery, Washington news correspondent, and Fred Bosselman, Chicago lawyer, also will speak.

Cleveland actress Edith Owen will perform a one-woman show about Abigail Adams, wife of America's second president.

Junior Chautauqua, for children 5- to 15-year-old, will feature drama workshops, jugglers, puppeteers and painting.

David Bell, former UNL faculty member, and Alan Nielsen, UNL graduate student in theatre, will direct their new play Home Front, an original musical with 14 songs and a cast of 10.

daily nebraskan

Editor-in-chief: Vince Boucher, News Editor: Lori Demo, Managing Editor: Randy Gordon, Associate News Editors: Gina Hills and Rex Seline, Layout Editor: Michele Schmal, Night News Editor: Randy Blauvelt, Arts and Entertainment Editor: Bill Roberts, Sports Editors: Dennis Ornen and Pete Wegman, Third Dimension Editor: Theresa Forman, Photo Chief: Ted Kirk.

Copy Editors: Pete Mason, Stephanie Noonan, Mary Kay Roth, Nancy Stohs and Matt Truell, News Assistant: Jim Kay, Editorial Assistant: Sue Kefauver.

Business Manager Jerri Hauser, Advertising Managers: Bruce McMorris, Gregg Wurdeman, Gary Younkin, Production Manager: Kitty Policky.

Second Class Postage paid at Lincoln, Neb. 68588. Address: The Daily Nebraskan, Nebraska Union 34, 14th and R streets, Lincoln, Neb. 68588. Phone: (402) 472-2588. The Daily Nebraskan is distributed one free copy for each student.

Copyright 1976, The Daily Nebraskan. Material may be reprinted without permission if attributed to the Daily Nebraskan, except material covered by another copyright. The opinions expressed in the Daily Nebraskan do not necessarily reflect the views of UNL or its administrative officers.

The beauty of Spring in DIAMONDS

Sartor Hamann
REGISTERED JEWELERS AMERICAN GEM SOCIETY

Downtown 1129 "O" St. Lincoln
Gateway Enclosed Mail
Conestoga Enclosed Mail Grand Island

CHUCK MITCHELL

poet - actor - singer - musician

THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1976

7:30 p.m.

UNION-CENTENNIAL ROOM

50¢ at the door

VESTED

Guys who know the comfort of Hitchin' Post casual clothes are finding the same comfort in our dress clothes. We're talking about our vested suits for spring. Tapered silhouette styling, accented by peaked and notched lapels. Fine fabrics. Handsome colors. European tailored shirts from Yves St. Laurent and Pierre Cardin with a coordinated tie complement the look.

For those special occasions the Hitchin' Post can help you look great.

Hitchin' Post & Wooden Nickel

144 North 14th