

Art, craft display set for Thursday

The University of Nebraska's Department of Recreation is sponsoring a craft and recreation fair Thursday, June 17, on Memorial Plaza, north of the Nebraska Union.

The fair, which is free and open to the public, will feature Joan Speidell, potter; Burnita Buhr, tole painter and the Chet Ager Nature Center.

The American Old Time Fiddlers will perform and the Lincoln Hang Gliding Club will sponsor a hang glider exhibit.

As part of a bicentennial commemoration, the recreation department also plans to have silversmiths, weavers, quilters and spinners on hand to demonstrate their arts.

In case of rain, the fair will be postponed until next Thursday, June 24.

Boys, girls nation participants named

Six Nebraska students will spend three weeks this summer studying national government in Washington D.C. and Philadelphia.

Selected to attend Boys Nation and Girls Nation, July 21 to Aug. 7, are: Kenneth Allen, John Visty and Julie Wallin, Omaha; Carl Scholz and Kim Nore, Lincoln; and Karen Wallerstedt, Oakland.

Delegates were selected from 379 Cornhusker Girls State participants and from 402 of those who attended Cornhusker Boys State.

The 38th Boys and Girls State was held on the UNL campus this month.

Other officials elected during the week-long session were governors Mark Knight, Omaha; Renee Wessels, Weeping Water; and lieutenant governors Jeff Wilson, Auburn; and Jerolyn Etchison, Papillion.

Committee formed to select head of medical center

A newly formed search committee is accepting nominations through July 15 for candidates to replace Robert Sparks as chancellor of the University of Nebraska Medical Center in Omaha, said Pete Boughn, secretary of the search committee and executive assistant to Sparks.

Sparks will become program director for health affairs at the W. K. Kellogg Foundation in Battle Creek, Mich.

Sparks will officially quit the chancellor's job on Sept. 1, but he probably will attend the September NU Board of Regents meeting, Boughn said.

Sparks has been chancellor of the medical center for four years.

Boughn said NU President D. B. Varner has asked the search committee to submit a list of qualified candidates to him and to the board of regents by September.

No date has been set for selection of the new chancellor, Boughn said.

Teacher Examinations Scheduled

The National Teacher Examinations will be given at UNL on July 17.

Scores from the examinations are used by many states for certification of teachers, by many school systems for selection, tenure status and identification of leadership qualities and by many colleges as part of their graduation requirements. About 100,000 candidates took the examinations last year.

Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the tests, said they are designed to measure knowledge gained from professional and general education in 22 subjects.

Bulletins of information describing registration procedures may be obtained from Frank Hallgren, director of Career Planning and Placement at UNL or directly from the National Teacher Examinations, Educational Testing Service, Box 911, Princeton, N.J. 08540.
