month. A business or math student could rent an adding machine there for $15 a month, a calculator for $20 to $75. You have a choice of new or used equipment.

Get in shape

After sitting at your newly-rented desk (and sneaking food from your little refrigerator) you might do well to rent some exercise equipment. AAA Rents (2208 N St.) is the place to go. Slim jims, belt vibrators and bicycle exercisers each rent for $10 a month. Joggers and massage rollers rent for $15 a month. If you hurt yourself in the process, you can rent a wheelchair for $14 a month, crutches for $3 a month.

For the accident-prone skiers in the crowd there are a variety of other places to rent crutches. Donley Medical Supply will rent them for $1.50 a week; Family Drug, $2 a week or $4 a month; Medic-Aids, Inc., $3 a month.

If you really have problems and choose to live in your own student health center, you can rent a hospital bed for $28 a month at Medic-Aids or for $40 a month from Donley Medical Supplies.

Barring sickness, you'll probably be up and about and full of energy. If that's the case, Lee's Rental has cleaning equipment that should help you keep your rented furniture in shape. Or maybe you're a fraternity pledge and are assigned to clean the entire house. For you, Lee's will rent a rug steam shampooer for $7.50 for four hours, a vacuum cleaner for $3.50 a day. If you want to do something nice for your pledge dad, rent a car polisher for $3.50.

And for my next trick

Of course, once everything is in shape, you'll want to throw a party.

For the classy touches needed at a holiday or formal affair, try AAA Rents. They have champagne fountains for $15, tablecloths for $1.50. They will rent you a five-piece silver coffee service for $10, a punch bowl for $3.50. Dishware rents for seven cents a piece, silverware, 15 cents for a three-piece place setting. A three-branch silver candelabra to set the scene can be rented for $10, a five-branch for $12.50. All items are rented by the day or by the party.

A more casual party, such as a picnic or outdoor barbecue, might require the renting of folding chairs and tables. For 30 cents each chair and $2.50 for an 8 ft. table you're set up for the occasion.

If you want to entertain your friends in grand style you might consider throwing a costume party and giving them a magic show on the side. Steve Harrington of Magic Touch will rent you a collapsible top hat, a magician's cape, rabbits and skunks. To agree on rental terms, contact him at P.O. Box 30076 in Lincoln. Harrington works as a magician out of his home and said he would be willing to share the elementary art of magic with you for $5 a lesson. More advanced training could cost from $25 to $100 if you want to learn to pull doves from the air.

Cleopatra, I presume

Your friends can rent costumes from Deluxe Costume World for 24 hours. Prices range from $6.50 to $20 for a complete costume. A clown, an elaborate Cleopatra or Uncle Sam costume rents for $15. Animal suits, including gorillas, swamp monsters and cyclopes rent from $8.50 to $20, depending on the completeness of costume.

Roman togas go for $6.50. Victorian dresses and Scottish kilts rent for $10.50. A double-breasted gangster suit rents for $8.50. All costumes are rented in sets.

A sorority or other campus social group is advised to schedule a band early. CID Productions can book a four- or five-piece band for $300 to $500 a night. You choose from rock and '50s groups.

If you want some music, but not that much, you can rent a stereo from Ace for $16.50 a month.

Another way to satisfy the aesthetic senses is to rent films, records and art. Bennet Martin Library will rent you records and films, including W.C. Fields, Laurel and Hardy and animal and nature films with your library card. Two dollars will rent you a film projector for the night.

The UNL extension division also rents films. For those with a need to be surrounded by art, Sheldon Art Gallery will rent paintings at a percentage of their value. A $100 painting rents for $4 a month; a $300 painting, $8 a month. They charge a $5 cover charge.

The great outdoors

The call of the wild may beckon some. Lincoln is full of places to rent camping, athletic and water sport equipment.

Holmes Park Marina will rent you paddle boats and canoes for $2.50 an hour and a $1 deposit. They charge $1.25 for each additional hour. For $4.14, rent yourself a canoe for the whole day. Sailboats are $5.50 an hour, $3.25 for each additional hour, or $9 the whole day.

And you don't have to keep the canoe at Holmes. You can pack it off on vacation for $17 for two days, $24 for three.

The UNL Recreation Dept. rents canoes for $5 a day ($9 a weekend and $19 a week). Rubber rafts rent for $3.50 a day ($6.00 a weekend, $12 a week). Backpacks range from $.75 to $1.50 a day, $1 to $3 for the weekend and $2 to $6 for the week.

You can also rent tents, sleeping bags and Coleman lanterns.

Skis can be rented for $12.50 a week. A fishing reel, bow and arrow, $1.50 a week.

And if you like to move in pairs, you and a buddy can rent a tandem bike for $1.50 a day.

What else could you possibly want to rent? An air conditioner? $46.50 a month gives you cool air from Ace from a medium size air conditioner.

Washers and dryers? They cost $36.50 a month for a minimum of two months from Ace. Ace has delivery charges for all its items of $10.

Second honeymoon

Still more?

Been thinking of taking your wife on a second honeymoon?

Well, you could rent a honeymoon suite at the Radisson Cornhusker Hotel for $80. Sounds steep, but it includes romantic French provincial furniture, a bottle of wine, and a king size bed—not to mention two twin beds, a parlor, two bathrooms and a kitchenette.

The Clayton House offers their suite for $40, the Hilton for $31.50. The Hilton also gives a gift certificate redeemable on your first anniversary.

Come December and you're bogged down with term papers, you might rent a Kelly girl to type for you. She will charge $1.25 a page or $4 an hour for four hours, minimum.

While she's typing, you can watch "Mary Hartman, Mary Hartman" on your rented television set, a black-and-white for $8.50 a week or $14.50 a month from Ace; color, $15 a week or $30 a month.

Last and maybe least, if you ever need diapers, Globe Cleaners at 1124 L St. will rent them to you for $5 a week. Safety pins included.
