

College plans consolidation

By Larry Lutz
Southeast Community College (SCC) is moving ahead with its long-range plan calling for a consolidated campus, said SCC President Robert Eicher.

The plan calls for continued, although limited, use of UNL facilities, but no construction on UNL property, he said.

Ray Coffey, UNL assistant business manager, said the school uses some UNL classroom facilities, as well as a building on 17th St., just north of the City Campus. It will be a continuing program, he said, adding that he thought SCC probably would continue to make arrangements to use UNL facilities.

Eicher agreed, but said a consolidated campus would be the best. He said some courses did not adapt to a classroom setting.

Some classes could not move in and out of a room at UNL in an hour, he said. Some courses need equipment to remain in one location, which could not always be arranged under the present agreement, he said.

Construction considered

At one time during the school's planning process, administrators considered construction on university land, but dropped that idea when they found land was not available, he said.

The consideration of university land was prompted by a state analyst's report showing that some university property was not being utilized. There were no sizable amount left unused, according to a university official, so the plan was dropped.

Coffey said SCC was interested in some land at 48th and Holdrege streets and some university land near Whittier Junior High. He said SCC had contacted his office more than a year ago "as a part of their search for a suitable campus site."

Both sites eventually were rejected and SCC continued to look for land, he added. The Whittier site was being considered as a support area for parking, while the 48th St. location was being considered for a campus site.

Expansion planned

Both areas are part of the university's long range campus expansion plan, Coffey said.

Eicher said SCC plans to construct a campus at 86th and O streets, and published legal notices for the construction in Lincoln papers this week.

Eicher said the 86th and O site is suited to SCC's needs for a variety of reasons.

"Ours isn't a Lincoln school, but a 15-county college," he said. "We need space for parking, consolidation and a location that is accessible to our students. We think this site will supply us with that."

He said by consolidating, SCC's operation can be more efficient because the classrooms will not be spread throughout the city. SCC classes currently meet in at least 40 Lincoln locations.

said no other nation voted against Hanoi. The vote on Vietnam was taken informally during a closed meeting of the executive directors of the bank, which lends billions of dollars a year to member nations to help them with development projects. The U. S. director, Charles Cooper, told a reporter after the meeting, "I voted against it. No other country did so." The Socialist Republic of Vietnam last week won membership in the International Monetary Fund, also over U. S. opposition.

Teed for free

Washington—President Ford accepted free golf outings from a U. S. Steel Corp. lobbyist at a New Jersey country club while he was a congressman, the President's spokesman acknowledged Tuesday. "The President has been a personal friend of Bill Whyte for 28 years and twice, on two weekends, he was a guest of Whyte at the New Jersey golf course while he was a member of Congress," said White House Press Secretary Ron Nessen. Whyte now is a vice president of U. S. Steel. He could not be reached immediately for comment. Nessen was asked if his statement was an admission that Ford had accepted a free weekend paid for by Whyte. The press secretary replied, "Yes." Nessen made the statement after columnist Jack Anderson said Whyte hosted Ford at the Pine Valley Golf Club near Clementon, N.J., between 1964 and 1971 while Ford was in the House of Representatives.

Bomb kills two

Washington—A bomb ripped through a car on Washington's embassy row Tuesday, killing the former Chilean ambassador to the United States and a woman research colleague, hospital officials said. Another person was seriously injured in the blast. Orlando Letelier, 44, ambassador during the regime of the late Marxist President Salvador Allende, and Ronne Karpen Moffitt, who worked with Letelier at a research institute, died in the explosion. Mrs. Moffitt's husband was injured in the explosion. The car in which they were riding erupted in flames as it passed along Sheridan Circle near the residence of the Chilean ambassador. A private organization advocating suspension of U.S. economic and military aid to Latin governments which violate human rights said that "It was no secret that Letelier was an ardent opponent of the repressive ruling military regime in Chile."

Hanoi wins
