

Magee's

LINCOLN CENTER GATEWAY

For warmth without weight, comfort and colorful fashion,

SWEATER/SHIRTS make good sense this season.

A new fashion idea that makes a lot of fashion sense is the sweater/shirt. They're warm yet light weight. They're comfortable and they're colorful, too. Here are three collared sweater shirts that are proved best-sellers. Come in and see for yourself why our sweater/shirts are so deservedly popular. All three come in small, medium, large and extra-large sizes.

Top: Heather-bar stripes by Thane in oxford gray, chocolate or navy. $21.

Center: Claude's sweater/shirt with Scandinavian design shoulder stripes, solid color cuffs, collar and waist band. Brown, navy or green on ecru. $22.

Bottom: Himalaya's chest-striped sweater/shirt in rust, brown or black. $16.

Magee's Lincoln Center 10 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.; Thursday 'til 9.
 Magee's Gateway 10 a.m. to 9 p.m.;
 Tuesday, Saturday 'til 6; Sunday 1 p.m. to 5.

short stuff

Triangle fraternity is sponsoring a haunted house from 7 to 11 p.m. Friday, Saturday and Sunday at 1235 N. 16th St. Proceeds go to the All University (AUF).

The Agronomy Club will meet at 7 tonight in Keim Hall. Ron Hanson, assistant professor of agricultural economics will speak on Nebraska Farmland Prices: How Much Higher?

Phi Upsilon Omicron, a national professional fraternity in home economics, is taking applications for membership. The applications are available in Neihardt Residence Center or the dean's office in Home Economics Bldg. Applicants must be second semester sophomores or above and be home economics majors.

Phi Chi Theta fraternity will meet at 4:30 p.m. today in the Union.

Theta Xi fraternity and the Alpha Phi sorority are sponsoring a haunted house for muscular dystrophy from 7:30 to 11 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 1535 R St. Donations are $1 for adults and 50 cents for children. All proceeds will go to the Southern Nebraska Chapter of the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Fred Tibbals, University of Durham professor, will speak on The Provision of Computing Support for Natural Sciences Research at 3:30 p.m. today in Hamilton Hall 104.

Ronald Case, UNL poultry and wildlife sciences associate professor, will speak on Road-killed Wildlife—A Bonanza for Biologists at 3:30 p.m. today in Bessey Hall Auditorium.

The UNL Black Masque Chapter of Mortar Board will meet Friday and Saturday in the Union. Saturday's keynote address will be given at 1:30 p.m. by State Sen. Shirley Marsh.

The Physics and Astronomy Dept. will open the Behlen Observatory to the public from 7 to 10 p.m. Friday. There is no admission charge.

Mueller Planetarium is sponsoring a special schedule of programs entitled Halloween Night in the Planetarium, which will be shown at 1:45, 2:30 and 3:15 Saturday and at 2, 2:45 and 3:45 p.m. Sunday.

Live Entertainment and New Dance Floor at Sweep Left WINDSONG

(tonight only)

815 O St.

Now you can Dance to the Sounds or Drink to the Music

No Cover Never a Cover

Always Reasonable Prices

See, touch and hear the Beosystem 1900.

A system to really experience, Bang & Olufsen of Denmark introduces the new Beosystem 1900. You must see for yourself the dramatic design and operational simplicity ... you must touch very lightly the touch-sensitive electronically activated controls ... and you must listen to the unparalleled sound quality it creates.

This complete audio system includes the remarkable Beomaster 1900 receiver, at $495; the elegant Beogram 1900 turntable with Bang & Olufsen's MMC 4000 cartridge, at $325; and the Phase-Link loudspeakers at $280/pair.

Together, these Bang & Olufsen components become the Beosystem 1900. A system that will give you years of listening enjoyment and aesthetic satisfaction. A system that you must see, touch and hear for yourself, exclusively at Audio Systems & Design.

Lincoln / 5421 South 84th Street / 489-9888