Regent Kermit Wagner of Schuyler has missed the largest number of NU Board of Regents meetings, a study shows.

Wagner missed 13 meetings and left seven early from January 1971 to September 1976, according to a study made by Don Wesley, UNL political science major.

Wesley said 'the study was not directed toward Wagner. Wesley began it, he said, because he was "concerned about the regents race."

After the study was completed, Wesley said, he contacted Merle Hansen, Wagner's opponent in the election, and left the information with him.

"I knew Merle (Hansen) before I did the study, Wesley said, "but I started it on my own initiative.

The results surprsied him "as much as_ anyone," Wesley said.

Attendance records for the other regents during the same period :

-James Moylan of Omaha: missed five, left eight early, and came late to one.

-Kermit Hansen of Omaha: missed five and left four early.

-Robert Koefoot of Grand Island: missed one and left six early.

-Robert Raun of Minden: missed four and left two early.

-Ed Schwartzkopf of Lincoln: missed one and left one early.

-Robert Prokop of Omaha: missed one.

The regents do not keep records of the regents' attendance, Wesley said, so he compiled his figures from the attendance records of individual meetings.
