Student to head anti-Carter group

By Lisa Broman

An Anti-Carter/Mondale organization at UNL is reactionary, rather than radical, according to the group's leader, Jim Johnson.

Johnson, a UNL graduate student, said the group has nothing against President-elect Jimmy Carter and Vice President-elect Walter Mondale, but does have something against theirs and the Democratic party's platform.

His dissatisfaction with the election prompted him to find out if others shared his opinion, he said. He then placed an ad in the Daily Nebraskan asking for interested persons to call him.

"Ever since the ad came out on Thursday," he said, "I have steadily had calls."

He said the calls have made him realize that the name of the group should be changed to a less offensive title. He said his callers are hesitant and afraid to get involved.

This hesitance is demonstrated by the fact that none of the callers have left their last names, he added.

The callers, Johnson said, have been mainly registered Independents, with two being Republicans.

Although no Democrats have responded to the ad, he said, he wants "anyone and everyone to become involved and express their opinions."

THE COLDER IT GETS, THE MORE YOU NEED BIVOUAC.

The same functional gear that keeps skiers and backpackers warm works great in town, too. So, before you freeze your duff off this winter stop in to see the cold weather specialists at BIVOUAC.

Down. Ask an insulation expert or a friend who's tried it. They'll tell you there's nothing like down to keep you warm. That's because it expands or "lofts" to fill up insulating space better than anything else. Yet it's featherlight. And down has the resiliency to continually spring back to its original loft or thickness. We've been selling down products for years, and using them ourselves, so we can answer your questions in more detail or give you brochures to take home.

Polarguard. There are select man made materials that do a great insulating job, but not quite as well as down. And even though you can't beat down for performance, polarguard does offer some other advantages. It's usually less expensive, it performs better when wet, and it's non-allergenic. Bivouac sells the best of these polarguard products.

Snow Lion SUPERVEST
