Bivouac will present a free downhill ski clinic at 7:30 and 9:30 tonight at the Bivouac store, 1235 Q St., in the Gunny's complex.

Topics to be discussed include base preparation, hot waxing, edge sharpening and binding maintenance. Films entitled Performer and Nastar Go for Gold will be shown at both times. A question and answer session will follow.

The Nebraska Union Recreation Dept. will conduct campus tournaments today through Saturday in men's and women's billiards table soccer doubles, chess and bridge.

The winners of each tournament will qualify for a regional games tournament sponsored by the Association of College Unions International (ACU-I).

The regional tournament will be Feb. 10 through 12 at Southeast Missouri State University in Cape Girardeau, Mo. Winners on the regional level will advance to a national tournament.

Pre-registration is required for the tournaments. Additional information and registration forms are available at the Union Recreation Desk in the lower level of the Union.

The tournament schedule: women's billiards, 6:30 p.m. today; men's billiards, 5:30 p.m. Wednesday; football doubles, 6:30 p.m. Tuesday; chess, 9 a.m. Friday and 2 p.m. Saturday; bridge.

The Husker wrestling team was led by Cliff Myles in the Iowa State Invitational Saturday in Ames, Iowa. Myles finished second in the 167-pound class.

Myles was 2-1 in the tournament. Teammate Rex Thompson was 3-1 and finished third in the 142-pound class. Others who placed for Nebraska were Bill Hoffman, fifth (177); Dan Kling, sixth (167); Jim Calvert, seventh (167); and Dave Finken, ninth (142).

Husker wrestlers and their tournament records include: 118-Mike Vranich, 3-2 126-Dave Winger, 1-4 Agon Vasha, 3-2; 134-Pat Arthur, 2-3; Bill Karpowicz, 2-2; 142-Dave Finken, 3-1; Terry Vik, 1-3, John Bradley, 1-1; Rex Thompson, 3-1; 158-Stew Hill, 0-5; 167-Dan Kling,

1-2; Cliff Myles, 2-1; Jim Calvert, 1-2; and 177-Bill Hoffman, 3-1.

The UNL women's gymnastics team won a triangular meet Saturday in Brookings, S.D., against South Dakota State University (SDSU) and Bemidji State College. The Huskers tallied 118.3 points to SDSU's 107.95 and Bemidji State's 105.65.

Crissey Robertson finished second in the all-around for the Huskers with a 30.20, winning the vault with an 8.3 and finishing fourth in the floor exercise and balance beam.

Tammy Driscoll was third in the all-around with a 29.25. She was second in the balance beam (7.50) and floor exercise (8.35) and fourth in the vault.

Peggy Liddick won the uneven parallel bars with an 8.80 and Sandy-Czaplewski won the floor exercise with an 8.55.

The UNL men's basketball team beat the University of Hawaii last Thursday and Friday and will return to Lincoln with a 3-2 record for a game against the University of Minnesota Wednesday in the UNL Sports Complex.

The Huskers men's gymnastics team finished third in the Ball State Invitational Saturday in Muncie, Ind. The Huskers tallied 148.70 points in the meet, trailing only the University of Oklahoma (OU) with 156.50 and Indiana State with 156.45.

The Huskers were defending champions in the meet. Leading performers for the Huskers were Larry Gerard, first in vaulting, second in the horizontal bar, fourth in the floor exercise and third in the all-around. Duane West finished third in the floor exercise for UNL.

Olympian Bart Connor won the all-around, floor exercise, parallel bars and horizontal bar to pace OU to the title.

Texas Tech University, the Huskers' opponent in the Dec. 31 Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl in Houston, defeated Baylor University 24-21 Saturday to clinch a share of the Southwest Conference title.

The win gave the Red Raiders a 10-1 regular season mark. Their only loss was to the University of Houston, 27-19. Texas Tech was ranked eighth last week.

Tech was led by quarterback Rodney "Little General" Allison. He carried the ball 11 times for 106 yards and two touchdowns and completed 9 of 16 passes for 122 yards.
