Miki keeps job

Tokyo—Prime Minister Takeo Miki maneuvered Tuesday to hold on to his job despite the Liberal-Democratic party's setback in Sunday's parliamentary election. The conservative party that has ruled Japan for 21 years was able to put together a paper-thin majority of only three votes in the lower house of the Diet parliament elected Sunday, and Miki was under heavy pressure from former Deputy Prime Minister Takeo Fukuda to let Fukuda take over.

Carter cabinet

Plains, Ga.—President-elect Jimmy Carter went to Atlanta Tuesday for the first of a series of trips to interview prospective cabinet members. Carter will use the privacy of the governor's mansion he once occupied to conduct the interviews Tuesday and Wednesday. He will continue the interviews when he visits Washington on

Billy blue

Plains, Ga.—The little crossroads town of Plains "is going straight to hell" because Billy Carter lost the town's mayoralty election—so says Billy Carter. President-elect Carter's younger brother was beaten 90 to 71 in the race on Monday. He lost to A. L. Blanton, the incumbent mayor, who also beat him by four votes, four years ago.
