

Former Husker wrestler meets rivals as coach

By Jim Hunt

An old rivalry will be renewed Wednesday night when the Drake University (DU) Bulldog wrestling team squares off against UNL.

The dual meet is scheduled to start at 7:30 p.m. at the UNL Sports Complex.

"There is quite a rivalry between Drake and us," said Tony Jennings, Husker assistant wrestling coach. "Their program is about at the same place our's is. They are building and we are building."

"I don't know how or when the rivalry was started, but one definitely exists between Drake and us," Jennings added.

In last year's meet, the Huskers took a 20-17 win over the Bulldogs.

"For the last five years we have beaten Drake (with a win) in the heavyweight match," Husker head wrestling coach Orval Borgianni said. "This probably will be our most exciting match of the year. It will come down to who wants it the most."

Match close

Jennings said he feels this year's match also will be close. Drake's strength lies in the lower weights and the Husker strength lies in the upper weights, Jennings said.

Jennings compiled a 3-0 dual record against the Bulldogs while wrestling for the Huskers before his eligibility ended last year.

"I've always been up for Drake," Jennings said. "Being from Iowa, it's pretty easy for me to get up for all the Iowa schools."

Jennings is a native of Corning, Iowa. Bulldog wrestling coach Lonnie Timmerman recruited Jennings for Drake. Jennings and Timmerman attended the same high school in Corning.

"They have a good program at Drake," Jennings said. "It costs a lot of money to go there, though."

First-year assistant

Jennings is in his first year as a Husker assistant, while finishing his undergraduate work. He had a 10-1-1 dual meet record last year and finished third in the Big 8 Conference in the 134-pound weight class.

"Coaching is a real change," Jennings said. "I was a little hesitant at first."

"I was a little strict with the wrestlers at first and they didn't like it too much," he said. "I think I have a good rapport with the wrestlers now, though."

Even though he is a coach, Jennings said he still enjoys practicing with the team.

In the Nov. 20 Bison Open at Fargo, N.D., Jennings, wrestling unattached, took second place in the 134-pound weight division.

Jennings said the level of competition on the wrestling team is getting better every day.

"The freshmen are still making freshmen mistakes," Jennings said, "but they are learning all the time. Some freshmen are pushing juniors and seniors for their jobs."
