

Semester break action gains wins for UNL's swimmers, wrestlers

By Jim Kay

The UNL men's swimming and wrestling teams resumed competition during semester break with victories over schools from Missouri and Minnesota.

John Reta's swim team won in its first action since the Big 8 Conference Relays Dec. 3 and 4 by downing Southwest Minnesota State College, 69-44, Thursday in the UNL Sports Complex. The Huskers won seven events and set one new school record.

Freshman Robbie Ingle set a record of 4:53.179 in the 500-yard freestyle and finished second in the event.

Reta said he was pleased with several of the team members' efforts against Southwest Minnesota State.

"We were pleased in that most of the swimmers either improved their times or equaled old times in the meet. Mike Crowder won the 50- and 100-yard freestyle events and John Dahir knocked three seconds off his 200 butterfly time."

"A good meet"

Reta also mentioned freshman Bob Hartford and diver Rick Grahn for their performances in the meet.

"This was a good meet in the sense that we didn't taper any prior to it," Reta said.

"The kids have been working real hard in two-a-day workouts. The workout period in January and December is the most intense work of the season. Once school starts again we'll have to cut back on our workouts."

Reta said lack of enthusiasm was not evident during the long break between.

meets because "they know that they have to work to get into condition and there is no easy way to do that except to go a lot of yards and do a lot of working out."

The swimmers' next meet will be at home Saturday with the University of Missouri.

"Missouri will be a contender in the Big 8 this year," Reta said. "They may not have enough depth to unseat Iowa State (defending Big 8 champ), but they do have quality people in all events."

Missouri trip

The wrestling team took a weekend swing through Missouri and came out with a 2-1 record.

The grapplers won a triangular meet with Southwest Missouri State University, 42-6, and Central Missouri State University, 21-18, on Friday night. They then dropped a dual meet to Missouri on Saturday 35-4, as freshman Agron Vasha was the only UNL winner in that meet.

The wrestlers scored five pins and lost only one match to Southwest Missouri State in a Friday afternoon meet, but needed a pin from freshman heavyweight George Rambour to nip Central Missouri State Friday night.

Double winners for the Huskers in the triangular meet were senior Pat Arthur at 134 pounds, junior Bill Karpowicz at 142 pounds, sophomore Steve Hill at 158 pounds and Rambour.

The wrestlers' dual meet record for the season now is 3-3. The next meet will be a triangular Saturday night at the Sports Complex against South Dakota University and the Colorado School of Mines.
