Gunmen sentenced

London - Four Irish Republican Army gunmen were sentenced Thursday to life imprisonment for seven killings and a dozen bombings during an 18-month IRA offensive in English cities. Authorities said they were bracing for a possible upsurge of IRA violence in reprisal for the stiff sentences. Outside the court, units of specially armed Scotland Yard officers were posted at public buildings in the heart of the British capital while extra precautions were being taken to protect prominent persons considered likely targets for IRA reprisals.

Is Jimmy there?

Washington - President Carter will spend two hours fielding questions from the American people in a live radio broadcast on Saturday, March 5, the White House announced Thursday. Press Secretary Jody Powell said the 2 to 4 p.m. broadcast from the Oval Office will be one in a series of efforts by Carter to keep in touch with the voters and their everyday concerns. Citizens will be able to call a toll free number which will be announced later. Powell said the callers who get through to Carter will be selected at random

Victory claimed

Pittsburgh - Lloyd McBride, backed by the United Steelworkers hierarchy in the race for the union's presidency, claimed victory Thursday over challenger Edward Sadlowski. But Sadlowski, 38, would not concede defeat and his aides hinted that the election for top officers in the 1.4 million-member union would be challenged. Based on unofficial returns gathered by his campaign staffs, McBride, 60, said he had a 75,000-vote margin over his opponent. A Sadlowski spokesman claimed his candidate was ahead by a slim lead of about 5,000 votes.
