Invasion?

Uganda radio said Wednesday that 2,600 American, British and Israeli mercenaries were advancing through Kenya to invade Uganda. Kenya and Britain immediately denied the claim. The government-controlled radio said in Kampala that its information came in a letter to the Ugandan Defense Council from "a group of Kenyan citizens," who were not identified by name. It was not clear whether the radio was giving a new report or was repeating allegations made by President Idi Amin last week that paratroopers from the United States, Israel and Britain had planned to invade his country in support of a coup against him.

Oswald note

New York—A federal investigator says a note signed Lee Harvey Oswald and asking about "my position" was sent to the late Texas oil magnate, H. L. Hunt, two weeks before the murder of President John F. Kennedy in Dallas, the Daily News said today. The News quoted the unnamed investigator as saying the note was dated Nov. 8, 1963, and said:

"Dear Mr. Hunt:
"I would like information concerning my position. I am asking only for information. I am suggesting that we discuss the matter fully before any steps are taken by me or anyone else. Thank you."

Aid cuts

Washington—The Carter administration informed Congress Wednesday that it is reviewing foreign aid programs with the idea of cutting funds for countries where human rights are violated. The reductions, if carried out, would come on top of recommended cuts in military aid to Argentina, Ethiopia and Uruguay. "Our concern for human rights must be considered together with other economic and security goals," Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance told a House appropriations subcommittee.
