

Husker women win two close ones

By Mike McCarthy

The Husker women's softball team may not have been a master at winning the close ones, but they looked like one after defeating Kearney State College (KSC) twice by one run Thursday at Mabel Lee softball diamond.

Husker pitcher Jan Bartels winds up her way to a 2-1 over Kearney State College. The Lincoln junior scattered three hits and struck out four of the Antelopes.

UNL took the first game 2-1 after falling behind 1-0 in the early going. KSC also jumped ahead in the second game scoring two runs in the first inning, but that was all they got as UNL rallied to win, 3-2.

"No, I don't like the close ones," said Huskers coach George Nicodemus. "I was pleased we didn't fold since we have a tendency to. We lucked out."

In the first game, Husker pitcher Jan Bartels gave KSC a scant three hits, while striking out four. Freshman Barb Colvert, Lincoln, scored the winning run in the fifth.

"We just weren't hitting well," Nicodemus said of the Huskers four hits. "We get on the batting machine and the girls swing nice and easy. It's a different story on the diamond."

Bartels, a Lincoln junior, upped her record to 2-1 while the Huskers pitcher in the second game, Julie Uryasz, got her first win of the year. She is now 1-1.

"Uryasz pitched a real good game," Nicodemus said. "She got into trouble in the first inning, giving up those two runs. But then she started throwing the ball instead of aiming it."

Peg Conradt, a Lincoln junior, scored the winning run in the bottom of the concluding inning, in the second game. With one out and Conradt on third, Aurora freshman Anita Bahe lined a fly to centerfield, scoring Conradt. But Nicodemus said Bahe and the other Huskers were "popping up" too many of their hits.

"They were trying to kill it," he said. "I told Anita just to step out in front of the plate and meet the ball."

Omaha sophomore Lori Mundhenke scored the Huskers' second run in the last game on a triple by senior Betsy Anderson from Blair.

"I hit better when I don't think," Anderson said. Anderson also scored the Huskers' first run in the fifth inning after reaching second base on an error by KSC's pitcher. Husker sophomore Kris Hermanson, the third baseman, did some hitting of her own, pounding out two singles in the first game.

The Huskers, who hiked their record to 3-2, now go to KSC Monday for a doubleheader.
