

Final parking decision to be released

Will next year's parking permits cost $30, $35 or more?

UNL Chancellor Roy Young said Thursday he will try to release a final decision on the parking permit cost question by the middle of next week.

ASUN and Residence Hall Association (RHA) representatives met with Young Thursday and discussed the parking permit problem.

Bill Skoneki, ASUN senator from Bellevue, said ASUN and RHA think the same level of services could be provided with a $30 permit, only a $5 increase.

ed with a $30 permit, only a $5 increase.

"The general student impression is, we're not willing to pay and pay and pay," Skoneki said. "We're willing to go with the $30, because there's no guarantee services will be any better with a $10 increase."

Young said he will forward ASUN and RHA's proposal to Vice Chancellor for Business and Finance Miles Tommeraasen, who will study it and recommendations from the Chancellor's Parking Advisory Board, and make a final recommendation to the chancellor.

Young said he wanted to make a decision before the students left for the summer, so that he could get some feedback on it.
