Board needs student hosts, hostesses

Host and hostesses for Nebraska home football games are needed by the Union Advisory Board.

About 12 to 15 students are needed to work in the Nebraska Union on each game day to help fans who use the union before the game, program coordinator Nancy Eicher said.

Duties include greeting visitors and answering questions, giving directions, assisting in the buffet lunch lines and showing football films in the Union main lounge.

An orientation meeting will be held in the union at 7:30 p.m. today for those interested.

"Students would work from 10:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. on the Saturdays they have chosen," Eicher said. It is a volunteer program with no pay involved.

This is the first year the Union Advisory Board has sponsored the Host and Hostessing Committee. In the past it was under the control of the Union Program Council (UPC), said Suzanne Brown, assistant director of UPC. The duties of the committee end Nov. 12, with the Kansas-Nebraska game.
