ATTENTION: FACULTY & STAFF HELPIII! Beginning Monday, September 19, the Daily Nebraskan is attempting to better distribute itself to campus buildings and local businesses. Information is being gathered by custodians as the whereabouts of "excess" issues. Now we need help in finding out buildings that could use more papers each day. IF YOU ARE IN A BUILDING THAT "RUNS OUT" OF PAPERS EARLY IN THE DAY, PLEASE CALL JERRI AT 472-1767. If you aren't getting papers, but would like some, please call also. Every effort will be made to redistribute the excess so everyone gets a chance to read the D.N. that wants to. Thanks for your help!

AFRICAN STUDENT MEETING
The president of the African Student Association expects also the presence of other African students from Nebraska Wesleyan and Union College, since this is the only organization in the university with such special status privileged to incorporate other students (African) in different schools into the mainstream of the Association. There are about 180 African students in Lincoln and hopefully the meeting will afford us with an excellent opportunity for more sense of awareness, better interactions and unity among ourselves.
