ATTENTION: FACULTY & STAFF

HELP!!! Beginning Monday, September 19, the Daily Nebraskan is attempting to better distribute itself to campus buildings and local businesses. Information is being gathered by custodians as the whereabouts of "excess" issues. Now we need help in finding out buildings that could use more papers each day. IF YOU ARE IN A BUILDING THAT "RUNS OUT" OF PAPERS EARLY IN THE DAY, PLEASE CALL JERRI AT 472-1767. If you aren't getting papers, but would like some, please call also. Every effort will be made to redistribute the excess so everyone gets a chance to read the D.N. that wants to. Thanks for your help!

Last Notice

All Student Organizations

It is an annual requirement that all UNL student organizations, honoraries, and honor societies file no later than 10-1-77 updated information with the Office of Student Activities, 200 Nebraska Union. This information must include the names, addresses, and phone numbers of the organizations' president, treasurer, and faculty advisor. Using this information the Office of Student Activities will publish by 10-15-77 a complete list of UNL student organizations under either an "active" or "inactive" status. Organizations who file this information and meet all other requirements will be granted active status and will be accorded full privileges on campus i.e., the right to conduct campus activities and events, use campus facilities etc. Organizations failing to file will be placed on an inactive status. Such organizations will have no campus privileges. Organizations with inactive statuses at the end of a two (2) year period will have recognition as an organization withdrawn. Forms to be used for information filing are available in room 200, Nebraska Union. Call 472-2484, 85,86,87 for additional information.
