

Soviets could join moratorium

United Nations, N.Y.—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko Tuesday volunteered to join the United States and Britain in a moratorium on underground nuclear weapon testing. He reminded the U.N. General Assembly that the Soviet Union had proposed a treaty to include underground tests in a three-power ban now in effect for tests in the air, in space and under water.

"Today," he went on, "we are taking one more step forward. Under the arrangement with the United States and Great Britain we agree to suspend for a certain time underground nuclear weapon tests even before the other nuclear powers accede to the future treaty."

Trial opens

Miami—The trial of a 15-year-old boy accused of murder has opened here with a television camera panning the courtroom and TV violence the main topic of discussion.

Defense lawyers were trying to prove that Ronald Zamora, 15, accused of killing an elderly woman, was rendered insane by "television intoxication." Lawyers disclosed plans to call numerous psychiatrists and psychologists, as well as actor Telly Savalas, as witnesses. The defense unveiled 44 exhibits with titles such as, "Violence on TV. An Unchecked Environmental Hazard."

Jury selection was stalled by arguing between Ellis Rubin, the defense attorney, and Tom Headley, assistant state attorney.

Ellis revealed that Zamora had been given an hypnotic drug at the Dade County Pretrial Detention Center, when Ellis, his wife and a psychiatrist visited the jail Thursday night. A court source said the drug may have been used to induce a re-enactment of the crime.

Plane crashes

A Japan Airline jetliner with 79 persons aboard crashed and burned Tuesday in a rubber plantation north of Kuala Lumpur, the Malaysian capital. Airport officials reported 43 survivors from the flight from Hong Kong. A spokesman said Flight 715 crashed during a thunderstorm.

Japan Airlines officials in Tokyo said there were 68 passengers and 10 crewmembers aboard the NC8 jet. Twenty-nine of those aboard were Japanese, an airline spokesman said. Nationalities of the others were not immediately known. Airport officials said some of the survivors were brought from the crash scene to the Kuala Lumpur airport by helicopter.

The plane was due to stop in Kuala Lumpur before flying on to Singapore.

Bombing suspect

A 73-year-old white man was held without bond after being indicted on charges of first-degree murder in a 1963 church bombing in which four black youngsters were killed. The church had been used as a meeting place for civil rights demonstrators.

Robert Edward Chambliss of Birmingham was arrested Monday after the indictments were handed up by a Jefferson County grand jury.

The charges stemmed from the Sept. 15, 1963, blast at the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church. Four girls died in a restroom area near the stairwell in which the explosion occurred, and 19 people were hurt.
