ELVIS IN CONCERT

"Elvis in Concert," a musical special starring the legendary musical phenomenon, Elvis. The entertainment special, highlighting Elvis' music and mystique, was videotaped this summer at concerts at the Omaha Civic Center in Omaha, Neb. The program conveys the particular excitement and electricity generated by this master showman. Also captured are the other unique aspects of an Elvis concert, including the ecstatic audiences and the simultaneous blend of precise musical preparation and infectious carnival atmosphere. The disarming combination of the supreme confidence of a superstar with the boyish smile of the kid next door, the Elvis mystique and his performing magnetism made Elvis the unique, never-to-be-forgotten embodiment of the fantasies of millions around the world.

MARK RUSSELL COMEDY SPECIALS

Mark Russell, the nation's leading political satirist, whose syndicated column appears in one hundred newspapers, is back for a third season of 'Mark Russell Comedy Specials.' The first of four programs will be telecast Tuesday, Oct. 4 on PBS. Because all of his material is taken directly from the news of the day, no one can predict what Mark Russell will include in his half-hour, one-man specials. Indeed, it is not uncommon for material to be added moments before airtime. Again this year, all programs will be presented 'live' from the Katherine Cornell Theatre on the campus of the State University of New York at Buffalo. Russell holds no reverence for any political issue or personality: On the United States Post Office—"The postal service has justified its 13 cents charge for a first class letter—3 cents for postage; 10 cents for storage."

CONSULT OUR LISTINGS FOR LAST MINUTE NETWORK CHANGES AND FOR EXACT AIR TIME.
