

Dayan announces agreement despite controversy

New York-Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Dayan, sidestepping a controversial American-Soviet declaration, announced Wednesday he and President Carter have agreed on a tentative formula for holding a Middle East peace conference in Geneva. Dayan, facing reporters in the early hours of the morning following marathon talks with Carter, emphasized the formula must be accepted by his government and by Israel's Arab neighbors. He said it might well be amended in the process.

The surprise announcement was coupled with the reading by White House spokesman Jody Powell of a joint statement that pushed into the background last Saturday's American-Soviet declaration of principles intended as a guide for a Geneva conference.

minister before arresting her Monday night on charges of political corruption.

Mrs. Gandhi was freed Tuesday by a Delhi magistrate who said the government gave insufficient grounds for detaining her. Seeking to capitalize on the court victory, she immediately resumed her speaking campaign against the Janata party coalition that turned her and the Congress party out of office in parliamentary elections last March.

New Delhi, India—Two of India's leading newspapers said Wednesday that Prime Minister Morarji Desai's government botched its campaign against Indira Gandhi by arresting her prematurely and jeopardized its future in the process. The Indian Express and The Statesman,

Hijackers encouraged?

Los Angeles—By acceding to the demands of leftist hijackers, the Japanese government has "reversed what happened at Entebbe" and given terrorists a "tremendous uplift," says an expert on hostage negotiations.

While the $6 million ransom paid to the Japanese Red Army members may be retrieved, the encouragement of future terrorism "is something you don't get back, and this is the really frightening loss," said H. Anthony Cooper, professor of criminal justice at American University. "This loss is something for which we have not found the answer," Cooper told the 48th annual convention of the International Association of Chiefs of Police.
