

President: oilmen 'potential profiteers'

Washington—Describing oilmen as potential war profiteers in the energy crisis, President Carter said Thursday the nation will risk "the biggest ripoff in history" unless Congress approves his embattled energy program.

Carter said if he doesn't gain passage of an acceptable energy bill, the White House has other options—and gasoline rationing is one of them. The President also told a nationally broadcast news conference that his forthcoming tax reform program will include tax reductions. He didn't say what they would be or how much they would save the taxpayer.

Carter said the administration won't know until January or February exactly how far it should go in seeking tax reductions. "The rapidity with which tax cuts will be instituted will be determined by the state of the economy," he said.

Suspect arraigned

Elvaton, Mr.—The 16-year-old son of a former state labor leader was arraigned in a locked courtroom Thursday on charges of stabbing three young neighbor girls to death. One of his lawyers said the youth was mentally unable to help in his own defense.

Stuart Kreiner did not enter a plea to the three counts of first-degree murder at the arraignment in nearby Harundale. Lawyers did not ask Anne Arundel District Judge Robert Heise to set bail, so the youth remained held without bond, charged as an adult.

As Kreiner was arraigned, funeral services were being held in nearby Glen Burnie for the three girls he is accused of killing—Deborah Ann Hogan, 10; her 8-year-old sister, Theresa, and their friend, Ann Marie Brzeszkiewicz, also 8.

Plane hijacked

Rome—A West German Lufthansa airliner with 92 persons aboard was hijacked during a flight from the Spanish island of Mallorca to Frankfurt Thursday by a gunman and landed at the Rome international airport, police said.

Police said it carried 85 passengers and seven crew members. In contact with the crew, police said they learned one of the passengers pulled a gun as the plane flew over the French Riviera and ordered the crew to fly to Rome.
