

Shots fired at school bus for second day in row

Detroit—Shots were fired at a school bus Thursday and three children were reported injured by flying glass, police reported. One witness reported seeing two boys pointing something at the bus just before the gunfire.

It was not immediately known whether the bus was moving or stationary when the shootings occurred.

The children, in the middle grades at Boynton Elementary School, were taken to hospitals. There was no immediate word on their conditions. One report said the children complained of slivers of glass in their eyes.

According to police, a similar shooting occurred Wednesday as the same bus was picking up students. A hole was found in the roof of the bus where a bullet appeared to have passed through, but no one was known to have been hurt in the incident.

Lenece Hawkins, the school aide assigned to the bus, told police she was keeping a sharp lookout because of Wednesday's shooting.

She said she saw two boys about 14 or 15 "pointing something at the bus," and suddenly the bus was hit.

Melvin Gilmer, transportation director for the public schools, said a driver reported hearing gunshots last week but the bus was not hit.

Casualties

Jerusalem—Israel expressed regret Thursday for civilian casualties in its reprisal raid on southern Lebanon but still defended the operation. It also welcomed Egyptian movement toward peace talks.

In Washington, President Carter declined to condemn Israel, telling a news conference: "If the provocation was absent, the retaliation would have been unnecessary."

Carter said, "The bloodshed in my opinion will not be stopped until the nations are willing to negotiate," adding that the Mideast "is teetering on another outbreak of violence."

Prime Minister Menahem Begin, discussing the heavy civilian toll among the more than 100 dead and 150 injured in Israel's bombing and strafing raid Wednesday, told reporters, "we regret it very deeply."

But Begin, who summoned U.S. Ambassador Samuel Lewis to his office to convey the message, added, "we do not apologize for the operation itself."

The cross-border foray was aimed at Palestinian strongholds and was Israel's reply to guerrilla rocket attacks on an Israeli town that killed three civilians.

Lebanon said Israel was guilty of "overt aggression" and would bring up the matter in the U.N. Security Council.

The U.S. envoy in Jerusalem said the United States also was "deeply concerned" about Wednesday's casualties and is "urging all parties to exercise maximum restraint."

The ambassador said the United States was making efforts to reinstate the six-week-old truce in Lebanon and have Palestinian forces withdraw from the border area.

Coverage

North Platte — An attorney for murder suspect Dennis Sell has asked 21 Nebraska media outlets for information on their coverage of Sell's arrest and court appearances in the death of a rural Lexington woman.

Attorney Keith Bystrom of North Platte said Thursday that he may ask that Sell's trial be moved to a distant county.

"We are looking into the possibility that the court will change venue to another county because of the vast amount of publicity and rumors pertaining to this case," Bystrom told 10 newspapers, five radio stations and six television stations.

Nebraska law provides that a change of venue will move a trial into one of the counties adjacent to the one in which the crime was committed. In at least three cases, judges have granted a change to a non-adjacent county, Bystrom said.

He said he may challenge that law in Sell's case if information gathered about media coverage makes him feel that Sell could not get a fair trial in Dawson County or any surrounding county.

Sell, 32, Lexington, has been charged with first-degree murder in the death of Mrs. Eby, whose body was found Sept. 27 in a farmfield four days after she disappeared from her home.
