LUCILLE BALL SPECIAL

Lucille Ball, one of television's premiere comedienne, is reunited with familiar sidekicks Gale Gordon and Vivian Vance (right in photo) and the trio is joined by guest stars Ed McMahon and Steve Allen for 'The Lucille Ball Special' to be broadcast on CBS-TV Monday, Nov. 21.

In the comedy-drama, Lucy Whittaker (Miss Ball) makes a telephone call to the President, invites him to dinner and causes a comedic commotion to erupt in her small-town neighborhood. The mood is thus set for an hour of laughter, from one-line repartee to farce to slapstick—and a surprise ending.

McMahon guest stars as Lucy's husband and the proprietor of the local bowling alley. Allen appears as himself. Gordon is Lucy's doughty father-in-law and Miss Vance is her best friend and neighbor.

HAPPY DAYS

As a gag, some snobbish characters invite Fonzie to a high society party—and although the Fonz doesn't fit in—they learn something about class in ABC-TV's 'Happy Days,' Tuesday, Nov. 22.

In 'My Fair Fonzie,' the Fonz meets pretty socialite Cynthia Holmes. When her snooty brother Millard sees Fonzie in all his leather-jacketed splendor, he thinks it would be a lark to invite him to the yacht club party. Richie and Lori Beth are also invited and join the Cunninghams in giving the Fonz a crash course in etiquette.

Ron Howard stars as Richie and Henry Winkler as Fonzie (in photo). Guest-starring are Lynda Goodfriend as Lori Beth and Sam Freed as Millard.
